CITY REPUBLICAN TICKET.

ELECTION, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 10.
FOR MAYOR:
JOHN W. RIDDELL.
FOR CITY TREASURER:
WILLIAM C. McCARTHY.
FOR CONTROLLER:
JOHN McCARGO.
FOR CITY ATTORNEY:
JACOB F. SLAGLE.

THE Democracy are famous for dealing last cards. Look out for them to-day, and be influenced by no stories coined in their camp at the eleventh hour.

LET EVERY REPUBLICAN of Pittsburgh vote not only himself to-day, but let him urge his Republican neighbors and acquaintances to vote likewise. Let us have a triumph that shall be worthy of ourselves and our city.

YESTERDAY in some portions of the city tickets were distributed with the name of J. F. Slagle for City Controller. The friends of that gentleman will remember that he is the nominee for City Attorney, and will use due care to see that the tickets are printed correctly before voting.

THE Illinois Journal, in treating of the coming National Republican Convention, and of what it ought or ought not to do, says:

"The Convention may and properly should discard the vagaries and ultraisms of self-constituted, impudent leaders, but it must not do anything to still the quickened pulsations of the national conscience."

WE ENTREAT those Republicans of Pittsburgh whose residences are far from their places of business, to vote before going to their shops, stores, offices, factories, or other places of employment. If they leave this duty till late in the day, the multiplicity of cares and engagements may prevent them from attending to it altogether.

VOTE EARLY.—Republicans, remember that the progress of the election will be bulletined each hour, and should the Democrats get in a heavy vote before noon, or show a majority at any time during the day, the effect will be discouraging to the masses. Let the voting commence early, so that from the start to the close, the Republicans will keep largely in advance of that of the opposition.

THE Committee of Ways and Means are anxious to know how to collect the whisky tax. The first essential element of the problem is to get honest revenue officers, and that cannot be done so long as the President is allowed to turn out the best men to make room for such as have no other claims than what arises from a willingness to support any policy he may dictate. Besides, the whisky tax, as now managed, can be made to yield a good deal of money towards paying democratic expenses in the coming presidential canvass. The more the government shall be defrauded, the more the Democratic National Committee will get.

ONE of the editors of the Memphis Avalanche has just completed a three weeks' sojourn in Arkansas. He gives a gloomy picture of the state of affairs in that state. He says:

"The reports which have reached this city have not been exaggerated. Indeed the condition of the country is worse than represented. Gloom and despair pervade the minds of the entire farming population. The losses of those engaged in the culture of cotton will be enormous. But few will pay expenses. The losses this year are much larger than those of last year. Planters are rapidly paying off and discharging their hands, being unable to feed them longer."

THE St. Louis Democrat gives these particulars of the manufacture of iron in Missouri:

"We have at present not less than seven smelting furnaces in blast in the State, beside the one at Carondelet now experimenting with hard coal. Of these, five are at Pilot Knob, one at Meramec, and one at Moselle, with an aggregate capital involved of six hundred thousand dollars. These furnaces sell from at an average of forty-eight dollars per ton. We have carefully collated the statistics published for the use of the American Iron and Steel Association, and find that figure to be as low as the average of American furnaces—the Cornwall Bridge Iron Company of Connecticut only producing iron at a cost of fifty dollars, which is the fair Eastern average."

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 9, 1867.

EDITORS GAZETTE:—The statement in the GAZETTE this morning that "an attempt was made, recently, to put John P. Glass in the place now held by Henry A. Weaver," is news to me. I know of no "engineers" who have had so nice an arrangement in store for me, (albeit the emoluments of such a position would be most acceptable,) nor has any person possessing influence with the present administration ever intimated an intention to give me any of the Federal offices in this District. Please publish this on its substance.

Very respectfully, &c.,
JOHN P. GLASS.

It is well known that a Committee went from here to Washington to secure among other appointments, that of Mr. JOHN P. GLASS. It is also known that the President refused even to grant this committee an audience. It would be most surprising, under all the circumstances, if this movement was conceived, and a serious attempt made to carry it into execution, without the knowledge and consent of Mr. GLASS. The people of this city and county will want to have so improbable a statement very strongly fortified, before accepting it as authentic.

OFFICIAL CORRUPTION.

Mr. OPDYKE has submitted to the New York Constitutional Convention an Article on this subject, and urged the adoption thereof in an able report. In this he is sustained by a majority of the Committee having the matter in charge. The Article embraces three points. It provides that the acceptance of a bribe by any official shall be a crime, punishable by imprisonment for at least three years; that the person offering the bribe which may be thus accepted shall not be deemed guilty of crime nor subjected to punishment at all; but, that if the bribe be rejected, the person offering it shall be punished in the same way and to the same extent as the officer who accepts one. A constitutional provision of this sort would come as near furnishing a complete remedy for official corruption as any legal stipulation can. It is not surprising, therefore that the suggestion encounters strong opposition. Its adoption or rejection will test the sincerity of the Convention in its professions of desire to put an end to practices by which legislation is disgraced.

—A poor and inoffensive old man, named Leonard, was brutally maltreated at his residence, near Maysville, on the 23d, ult., by a gang of the so-called lynch men. He was dragged from his bed, and twice suspended to a tree by a rope, which was fastened to his neck. When half dead, he was taken down and ordered to quit the vicinity at once, on pain of death.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9, 1867.

The Chair submitted a communication from the Attorney General, transmitting the names of the various Assistant District Attornies, with salaries, &c. Laid on the table.

Also, from the Secretary of the Treasury, stating, in answer to inquiry, that three per cent. of the amount above six hundred dollars had been deducted from the salaries of Judges, according to law.

Mr. SUMNER presented a petition from Erastus Corning and others, stock and bond holders of the central branch of the Pacific Railroad, praying that nothing contained in the act in relation to the Eastern Division of the Pacific Railroad Company shall be construed to prejudice their branch. Referred.

On motion of Mr. HARLAN, the Committee on Military Affairs was instructed to inquire into the propriety of amending the act entitled, "An act declaring and fixing the rights of volunteers as parts of the army," approved March 2d, 1867, so to include previous service in marine corps in establishing the relative rank in the army; also, as to the propriety of authorizing the Secretary of War to take into consideration in all cases previous rank as well as previous service in determining the position of an officer.

On motion of Mr. TRUMBULL, the Secretary of the Treasury was directed to furnish the Senate the names of all individuals to whom any captured and abandoned property was released, nature, quality and value thereof, amount of money returned to each, and whether as preliminary thereto such individuals had been required to pay any fee or compensation of any kind to any attorney or other person, and the evidence upon which and under what law or authority such property was released or paid over; also, whether any of such property or its proceeds were released to persons who had been engaged in rebellion or had given aid and comfort to the rebellion, and whether before releasing such property or returning its proceeds the department required claimants to establish their loyalty by competent proof; and also a copy of any correspondence between the Court of Claims, or any of its officers, in regard to judgments by said Court or payments thereof of what are known as cotton cases.

Mr. RAMSEY submitted the following, which was ordered to be printed:

Resolved, That the Committee on Foreign Relations be directed to inquire into the expediency of a treaty between the United States and the Dominion of Canada, which shall contain the following provisions: First, that duties of five per cent. ad valorem shall be imposed on all importations from Canada, being the exclusive production or manufacture of Canada, to the United States, or for the United States to Canada, which shall be substituted for the existing tariffs of the respective countries; Second, that the excise duties of the United States and Canada shall be assimilated by concurrent legislation; Third, that the navigation of the great lakes, canals and channel of the St. Lawrence shall be forever free to the citizens of the United States and Canada; Fourth, that Canadian vessels in American ports shall be entitled to all the privileges of American vessels in Canadian ports; Fifth, that the fisheries of the Atlantic coast shall be free to the citizens of both countries; Sixth, that the common system of laws regulating copyright, patent rights and postage shall be extended over both countries; Seventh, that Canada, with the consent of Great Britain, shall cede to the United States the districts of North America west of longitude 90°, on conditions, to wit: First, that the United States will pay $6,000,000 to the Hudson Bay Company in full for discharge of all claims to the territory or jurisdiction in North America, whether founded on the charter of the Company, or any treaty, a law, or usuage; Second, the United States will assume the public debt of British Columbia, not exceeding two million dollars; Third, to aid in the construction of the Northern Pacific Railway from the western extremity of Lake Superior to Puget Sound, the United States, in addition to the grant of land heretofore made, to guarantee dividends of five per cent. upon stock of said coupons, provided the amount of stock guaranteed as aforesaid, shall not exceed $20,000 per mile, and Congress shall regulate the security for the advance on the account thereof; Fourth, the northwest territory shall be divided and organized into territories of the United States, not less than three in number, with all the rights and privileges of the citizens and the government of Montana territory, so far as can be made applicable.

The act to suspend further contraction of the currency came from the House and was referred.

Mr. SUMNER offered a resolution instructing the Committee on Officers of the Senate to define the duties of Sergeant-at-Arms, saying there was no rule defining his duties. Since he had been a Senator he had never seen the present Sergeant-at-Arms in his seat.

Mr. TRUMBULL had no objection to the resolution, but it should apply to all officers. The Sergeant-at-Arms was employed in keeping persons from the floor who were not entitled to admission. He offered to amend by making the resolution apply to the Secretary and other officers.

After considerable debate the resolution was referred to the Committee on Pay of Officers.

Mr. WILSON gave notice that he should to-morrow introduce a bill to remove political disability from two hundred and ninety-four citizens of Alabama, recommended by Generals Pope and Swayne. The list includes Governor Patton and General Longstreet.

Mr. HENDERSON offered a resolution calling on the Secretary of the Treasury for copies of instructions to officers in relation to captured and abandoned property, the amount of money received from the sale of such, how much returned to the Treasury, and how much still in the hands of officers receiving the same, &c.

Mr. FESSENDEN condemned this system of asking questions indiscriminately, and the resolution was referred.

Mr. CHANDLER called up his resolution declaring that during the war between Abyssinia and England the United States would preserve strict neutrality. He maintained it was merely a retaliatory measure for the course of England towards this Government during the rebellion. Had Britain acknowledged the Alabama claims, he would have been silent; but she had thrown them out of court. Those claims were a first lien on every foot of land on the continent and adjacent islands owned by Britain would be sufficient remuneration and would satisfy national honor. He would never again refer to the Alabama claims until this mortgage was foreclosed. He believed messengers were on the way here from Abyssinia to procure ships of war. He believed that flag would be recognized and he would, if a British ship of war chased one of them into a United States port, compel her to remain under the guns of a fort until the Abyssinian had twenty-four hours' start. Let the Abyssinians light up old ocean with burning ships of Great Britain. If the King of Abyssinia enlisted seamen here, he hoped perfect neutrality would be observed. He believed, if the resolution passed, that from ten to fifty privateers would be on the seas in one hundred days, and British chronometers would be cheap in this market as American chronometers were once in Britain.

Mr. ANTHONY agreed that the conduct of England during the rebellion had been wholly unjustifiable, but the true way to revenge ourselves upon England was to show by our own growth and power the superiority of Republican over monarchial institutions, by attracting here the capital and labor of Europe. We conquored rebellion with the sympathies of England against us; let us now overcome her in the art of peace. He would go further and press upon other powers the perfect immunity of private property on sea as on land.

Mr. JOHNSON saw no object in this resolution. No greater evil could happen to this country than war with Great Britain. We could emerge, doubtless, with honor, but with an immensely increased debt. All the great principles of human freedom were recognized by Great Britain, and such a war would doubtless militate against human liberty. Great Britain certainly committed a gross error in 1861, and owed it to herself to pay every dollar of the damages; and he contended that the resolution proposed, in effect, to resign those claims. He would never vote to provoke a needless war with Great Britain.

Mr. SUMNER said the present proposition was premature. The documents in regard to the matter would reach the Senate from the President in a few days. It would be better to wait till the Committee on Foreign Affairs had considered this one most important question before them, touching not only their immediate interests, but the law of nations, and which involve the consideration of great principles which would probably be established for all time by the decision.

Mr. NYE said something should be done which would satisfy the people. If necessary the law of retaliation should be resorted to. When Great Britain paid for those damages and apologized for her insults to the American flag, he would be ready for the peace advocated by the Senator from Rhode Island.

Mr. HOWE made some remarks, mainly humorous, concluding by saying the King of Abyssinia would not be a very effective ally in case of war.

Mr. SUMNER moved an Executive Session, but withdrew it to allow the introduction of some private bills.

The CHAIR submitted a reply from the Secretary of the Treasury to the resolution calling for information whether, since June, 1860, any unexpended balances of some appropriations had been used to supply deficiencies in others in the same Department, or transferred to an account; if so by what authority? The reply is in the affirmative, citing as authority the act of March 3d, 1809. Laid on the table and ordered to be printed.

Mr. MORRILL'S bill relative to currency was postponed until Wednesday.

The Senate, after a short Executive Session, adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

A large number of bills and joint resolutions were introduced and referred, including the following:

By Mr. VAN WYCKE: Authorizing the Comptroller of Currency, with the approbation of the Secretary of the Treasury, to revoke the order appointing a receiver to take charge of any bank and restore such bank to the owners thereof.

By Mr. WILLIAMS, Ind.: To exempt from taxation manufactured goods, where the product shall not exceed $5,000 per annum, except certain articles.

By Mr. COOK: That persons of foreign birth who have been naturalized under the Constitution and laws are thereby absolved from all foreign allegiance, and that the Government of the United States shall afford them the same protection accorded to natives.

By Mr. BROMWELL, Ills.: Authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to use four millions dollars in greenbacks monthly in redeeming bonds and destroying them.

By Mr. WASHBURNE, Illinois: To provide for the recording of deeds in the Clerk's office of the United States District and Civil Courts; also, to prevent payment of claims for seizure, or impressment, or for damages, or demurage, or detention of any appliances of transportation, or for transportation served, tolls or ferriage, beyond the tariff of rates fixed by the Quartermaster General, or for use or occupation of lands in the insurrectionary States for fortifications, &c.

By Mr. NEWCOMB: To abolish the office of Assistant Treasurer of the United States.

By Mr. LYNCH: To provide for the resumption of specie payments. The bill provides that from the first of March, 1868, United States notes when received at the Treasury shall be destroyed and new notes issued, payable in coin in one year from date at the Treasury; that such notes shall before maturity be legal tender for purposes including the redemption of National Bank notes, except for payment of import duty and coin interest on Government bonds; after maturity they shall be legal tender for all purposes except by Government, and the Secretary may, after specie payment has commenced, issue notes payable in coin in less than one year, but not less than three months, and may also purchase coin to enable him to redeem bonds not exceeding fifty millions.

By Mr. LYNCH: To provide against undue expansion and contraction of the currency. The bill authorizes the Secretary of the Treasury to issue three hundred millions of coupon bonds, payable in lawful money at demand, at five per cent. interest in coin, the bonds to be issued to any person paying the par value thereof in lawful money.

By Mr. WILSON, of Ohio: To authorize the State authorities to tax non-interest bearing United States notes.

By Mr. PAYNE: To amend the bankruptcy law.

By Mr. WASHBURNE, of Wisconsin: To amend the Pacific Railroad acts, by establishing a Commission consisting of the Secretary of War, Secretary of the Interior and Attorney General, to fix annually, on the 1st of July, a tariff of charges for transporting freight and passengers on that road.

By Mr. WELKER: To amend the pension acts.

By Mr. HARDING: A bill for a like purpose.

By Mr. LAWRENCE, of Ohio: In reference to Islands in the Miami river.

By Mr. EGGLESTON: To charter the Washington and Cincinnati Railroad.

By Mr. KERR: To regulate the compensation of Assistant Assessors and Assistant Collectors of Internal Revenue in certain cases.

By Mr. LOGAN: In reference to longevity of rations of non-commissioned officers and privates; also, requiring the Committee of Ways and Means to inquire into the justice and expediency of reporting a bill refunding the income tax collected from officers of the army and navy during the war.

By Mr. JERRY: Joint resolutions of the Michigan Legislature in reference to public lands for wagon roads in Michigan and in reference to improving the harbor at the mouth of the Sheboyan river.

By Mr. DRIGGS: Defining acts granting lands to Michigan for ship canal.

By Mr. LOUGHRIDGE: To prohibit the sale of Cherokee lands in a body and providing for the sale thereof; also, to grant lands in aid of the common schools in the District of Columbia.

By Mr. WINDOM: To amend the reconstruction act of March 2d, 1867, by providing that the Constitutions of the late rebel States may be ratified by a majority of the votes cast at such an election.

By Mr. CHILCOTT: To establish additional land districts in Colorado.

By Mr. VANTRUMP: To amend National currency act, by rendering absolutely void all contracts for charging greater rates of interest than provided in the 30th section of that act.

Mr. POLAND offered a resolution for the appointment of a Committee of five members to which shall be referred the reports of the Commissioners to revise, simplify, arrange and consolidate the statutes of the United States. Adopted.

Mr. BOUTWELL offered a resolution directing the Judiciary Committee to consider the expediency of so amending the law as to require members of the Constitutional Conventions in the unreconstructed States to take the test oath.

The SPEAKER presented a message from the President in reply to a resolution of the 17th of July last, touching armed organizations to avenge the death of Maximilian. Referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs.

The resolution on the distribution of the President's Message came up, and an animated discussion took place on a proposition by Mr. BUTLER, to refer to the Committee on Appropriations that part referring to the appropriation for the purchase of Alaska, Messrs. Butler, Washburne, of Ills., Washburne, of Wis., and Schenck taking the ground that the treaty was not in operation until the House agreed to make the appropriation, while Messrs. Banks, Stevens, of Pa., and Robinson argued that the matter came properly before the Committee on Foreign Affairs. Finally Mr. Butler's proposition was rejected, and the matter remains committed to the Committee on Foreign Affairs.

Mr. BROOKS called for a separate vote on the resolution referring part of the message to a select Committee on Reconstruction, and it resulted: yeas, 112; nays, 43.

Other resolutions distributing the message were then adopted.

The SPEAKER presented a report from the Secretary of the Treasury relative to the amount of tax received from National Banks. Referred.

Mr. JULIAN, from the Committee on Public Lands, reported back the bill declaring forfeited certain lands granted for Railroad purposes in Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, and Florida. Recommitted.

Mr. HUBBARD, of West Va., offered a resolution instructing the Committee on Banking and Currency to inquire into the expediency of amending the national currency law so as to extend its advantages to all persons who will comply with its provisions and restrict the issuing of bank notes to two-thirds of the capital of the bank. Adopted.

Mr. BARNES moved to suspend the rules to allow himself, Mr. Wood and others to record their votes against impeachment. The rules were not suspended—yeas eighty-five, nays fifty—less than two-thirds.

Mr. ELDRIDGE asked permission for Mr. Van Trump to print some remarks he had prepared on the Constitutional point of the impeachment question. Permission refused.

The concurrent resolution of the Senate, re-appointing the joint committees on repairs to the President's Mansion, and on fixing the pay of officers of both Houses, were concurred in, and the same members that composed these committees last session were reappointed.

The Senate bill fixing the quorum of the Supreme Court at five, was passed.

The Senate bill striking the word "white" from all laws and charters of the District of Columbia, so as to make colored men competent to hold office and sit on juries, was passed—yeas one hundred and six, nays thirty-eight.

Mr. WILSON, of Iowa, offered a resolution calling on the President for a record of the trial of Albert Lusk, in New Orleans, last August, for the murder of a negro boy. Adopted.

Mr. HOOPER moved to suspend the rules that he might offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That in the opinion of this House the amount of revenue annually collected by taxation shall not exceed three hundred million dollars; that the Committee on Ways and Means be instructed to report a bill so modifying the Internal taxation as to reduce the revenue from internal taxes and tariff duties to $300,000,000, and that the Committee on Appropriations be instructed not to exceed that amount, including interest on the public debt, in the appropriations reported to the House.

In the course of some remarks, Mr. HOOPER said the only way to secure economy in the expenditures is to diminish the surplus, and in doing that the heavy burden of taxation which is now weighing on the people will be lightened. The best way to increase money in circulation is to diminish the amount exacted from the people by taking off fifty millions from taxes.

Mr. STEVENS, of Pennsylvania, wanted to know how the Committee of Ways and Means was to distribute the three hundred millions, and requested Mr. Hooper to give some indications on that point.

Mr. HOOPER said that was a matter not for him, but for the Committee.

Mr. ELDRIDGE suggested an amendment limiting internal taxation to whisky and tobacco.

Several other suggestions were made, but as the House refused to suspend the rules in order to let Mr. Hooper's resolution be offered, the whole matter fell through for the present.

Mr. DONNELLY offered a resolution for the printing and distribution, through the Consuls of the United States in Europe, of an abstract of the information contained in the report of the Commissioner General of the Land Office. Adopted.

Mr. WILSON offered a resolution instructing the Committee on Commerce to inquire into the expediency of improving Saugatuc harbor, at the mouth of Kalamazoo river, Michigan, which was adopted.

Several resolutions of inquiry in reference to various subjects were offered and agreed to, and the House adjourned.

CENTRAL AND SOUTH AMERICA.

All Tranquil in Colombia—Mosquera's Sentence Commuted—Earthquake and Volcanic Eruption—Revolution in Lima—Trouble in Ecuador.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 9.—The steamer Rising Star brings Panama dates to November 29th. All was tranquil in Colombia. Mosquera's sentence was commuted to three years banishment from the territory of the Republic, together with the nullification of all rights as a citizen. He goes to Europe.

Cholera is said to have broken out in Honduras, near the Nicaragua frontier.

An earthquake and volcanic eruption took place near Realiss on the 14th of November, and resulted in the destruction of a plantation. An old volcano, called Reta, broke out again and was in full activity.

All was quiet in Costa Rica. The recent report of an attempted revolution was unfounded.

A Lima letter of Nov. 21st says the revolution is spreading, and no satisfactory news had been received from Araquipa. Fears were entertained of the capital being sacked by Mononeras, lawless bandits, who always show themselves when a revolution breaks out.

The Ecuadorian Cabinet resigned in consequence of the condemnation of Ex-Minister Bustamente by Congress. The latter, before closing its session, passed a strong vote of censure to the President, accusing him of incapability and corruption. Senor Carrion found himself deserted by all his friends, unable to form a new Cabinet, and to count upon the public force. He resigned the Presidency. The Vice-President, Senor Arteta, took his place. New elections were ordered for December 15th.

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

In the meantime recommendations for the purchase from representative commercial men are coming in, and Senators indicate a disposition to delay action until further indications of approval come from influential quarters.

—The New York Herald special says Mr. Boutwell, though not very much astonished at the fate which has befallen the late bill of impeachment, feels sanguine that before many months elapse Andrew Johnson will be impeached in real earnest and removed. He says: "It is impossible that the President, inflated with the notion that the people have at last endorsed his policy and forced their representatives to overthrow his enemies, the impeachers, can avoid committing some outrageous act that will call down upon him the stern retribution of Congress."

—The Court of Inquiry in the case of the Sixth and Eighth Regiments of Maryland militia, charged with endeavoring to offer an indignity to the Governor, on the occasion of the late parade at Baltimore, directed that both regiments be publicly reprimanded, the officers of Companies D, E and G to be dismissed and the enlisted men of these companies to be dishonorably discharged from the service.

—Advices from St. Thomas, of the 10th ult., state that Admiral Palmer and the Danish Commissioner were to meet the Governor of St. Thomas next day, to complete the arrangements for the transfer of the island to the United States. The people were pleased, but the merchants were not enchanted with the idea of American tariff.

—Edward William Johnston, well known in literary circles, and for many years connected with some of the leading newspapers in this country as editor and correspondent, and a brother of Gen. James E. Johnston, died at St. Louis yesterday morning, after a long illness.

MAIL SERVICE TO UNITED STATES.

LONDON, December 9.—The mail service between the United States and Great Britain will not be performed exclusively by the Cunard Company. The steamers of the North German Lloyd have been accepted by the British as well as the American Government. The Inman line will also carry mails.

GARIBALDI HAS NOT ESCAPED.

A dispatch from Florence denies the story that Garibaldi has escaped from Caprera.

A TREASONABLE SPEECH.

At a large meeting held in Dublin, Sunday night, a powerful speech was made by John Martin, of Kilbourney, which is generally considered to have contained sentiments of a treasonable nature. Martin was formerly a prominent member of the young Ireland party, was associated with John Mitchell in the publication of the United Irishman, and exiled for participation in the rebellion in 1848. He has since been an advocate of the repeal of the Union and is Chief of the Irish National League—an organization but indirectly, if at all, connected with the Fenian movement. His arrest is anticipated.

THE ROMAN CONFERENCE.

LONDON, December 9.—It is thought the scheme of a European Conference for the settlement of the Roman question will be deferred by the speech of Minister Rouher, which indicates the French Government has already prejudiced the whole case.

FENIAN FUNERAL OBSEQUIES.

LIMERICK, December 9.—The funeral obsequies in honor of Allan, Gould and Larkin, took place here yesterday. The proceedings were very imposing. Over ten thousand persons walked in the procession, which marched through the principal streets of the city.

STEAMER DELAYED.

RECONSTRUCTION CONVENTIONS

VIRGINIA.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

RICHMOND, December 9.—The Convention this morning was visited by Governors Pierpont, of Virginia, and Smythe, of New Hampshire. Both addressed the Convention, hoping a good and wise constitution would be framed, which would make the State happy and prosperous. Governor Smythe urged the members to bear with the prejudices of men and with each other, and thought that when the passions of the hour have cooled, all would be well. A vote of thanks to these gentlemen was adopted. The Convention then went into the consideration of the report of the Committee giving eight dollars per day to members. Amendments putting it at six and seven dollars were defeated by decided majorities.

After some discussion, the eight dollars per diem was left in the ordinance, which was ordered engrossed.

A resolution was offered to appoint a committee to inquire into the cases of injustice in the administration of civil courts since June 1st, 1865, and report the best means of remedying the evils now existing in the civil government. It was opposed by Messrs. Hunnicutt, Snead and others, and laid on the table.

Mr. Hunnicutt offered a resolution for the appointment of a committee to investigate the discharge of persons for voting the Republican ticket at the State election, and to report some means for relieving those thus discharged. An amendment was offered, empowering the Legislature to make it a misdemeanor or to discharge a person for voting as he chooses. Another amendment was offered to incorporate in the Constitution an article disfranchising any person who discharges an employee on account of his vote. After some discussion the whole matter was laid on the table.

Adjourned.

The city is full of strangers to attend the Convention which meets Wednesday. Senator Wilson, of Massachusetts, is expected to visit Richmond this week.

GEORGIA.

ATLANTA, Dec. 9.—The Convention met this morning. One hundred and eight whites and twenty-two colored members were present. George Ashburn moved Foster Blodgett be elected temporary chairman. Carried. Mr. Blodgett not being present, J. L. Dunning, of Atlanta, was called to the chair, and W. W. Clifton, chosen Secretary. There was much confusion, and the Convention was unable to agree upon a permanent organization. Mr. Campbell, colored, offered a resolution that all aspirants for the Presidency shall define their position on the relief question.

After considerable wrangling the Convention adjourned until to-morrow. Active canvassing is going on for President. The Radicals are much divided, the ultras holding out for Hopkins or Blodgett and the others for Saffold or Parratt. The negroes held a caucus this afternoon and settled on Hopkins as their choice.

LOUISIANA.

Removals Revoked by Gen. Hancock.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 9.—No business of importance was transacted by the Convention to-day.

Gen. Hancock has revoked so much of Special Order No. 192, issued by General Mower, as removes Adam Griffin, State Treasurer, and Hypolite Peralta, State Auditor, and appoints E. J. Jenkins and J. H. Syper to their places, and has restored the former incumbents. The General visited the Opera on Saturday night, where he was greeted with enthusiastic cheers.

Suicide at Detroit.

[By Telegraph to Pittsburgh Gazette.]

DETROIT, December 9.—The cause of Colonel Little's death, at East Saginaw, this morning, was suicide. A coroner's jury rendered a verdict that he died from a pistol shot fired by his own hand while laboring under temporary insanity. Col. Little was one of the wealthiest men in the Saginaw Valley, and no suspicion is entertained of financial matters being in any manner connected with the act. The event has created a profound sensation in the community.

INDIAN COMMISSION.

The Indian Peace Commissioners met this morning at the room of the Senate Committee on Indian Affairs. The members were all present, except Mr. Harvey. Without transacting any business, they adjourned until Wednesday, as it is thought essential there should be a full attendance.

TAX OF NATIONAL BANKS.

According to the official report of the United States Treasurer, the amount of annual duty received from National Banks during the last fiscal year was $9,657,616. The amount collected from the banks by the Internal Revenue Bureau, not included in the foregoing, is $4,426,966.

ASSISTANT DISTRICT ATTORNIES.

The Attorney General sent to the Senate to-day a list of Assistant District Attornies appointed by him, with salaries, &c. Only one, M. L. Perkins, appointed for Western Tennessee, had been previously rejected by the Senate for the District Attorneyship, and he was employed as Assistant at the recommendation of the District Attorney himself, under the uniform rule of the Department.

REQUESTED TO RESIGN.

T. C. Theaker, Commissioner of Patents, received notice late on Saturday night from the President, through the Secretary of the Interior, that his resignation would be accepted at once.

NOMINATIONS.

A few unimportant nominations were sent to the Senate to-day.

URICHSVILLE O.

Urichsville—Early History—Present Prospects—Pittsburgh, Columbus & Cincinnati Railroad—Dedication of new M. E. Churches at Newport and Rockford—New M. E. Church at New Philadelphia—Opening of Rev. A. D. Lee's new Seminary—Revs. Reid and Dempsey.

[Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

In the autumn of 1830, now thirty-seven years ago, Mr. Michael Urich settled on a tract of land which subsequently became the site of what is now known as Urichsville. A log cabin was erected as a place of residence by Mr. Urich, and a small frame building attached to the cabin afforded facilities for the transaction of such business as was common in country stores at that time. Subsequently others moved into the same neighborhood, and the "settlement" grew into a small village. The first impulse given to the village was the construction of the Ohio Canal. A feeder, three miles in length, connects Urichsville with the canal, and afforded for many years the only outlet for the products of this entire region. Immense quantities of wheat, for the production of which the lime-stone land of Harrison and Tuscarawas counties is so well adapted, were shipped every year to Portsmouth and Cleveland, the termini of the canal. Much of the wheat sent to Cleveland found its way to New York by way of Lake Erie and the Hudson river. The present population of the place is about fifteen hundred. For years the increase was very slow, and the town, both in external appearance and business, had too much of the appearance of being "finished." The completion of the Pittsburgh, Columbus and Cincinnati Railroad infused new life into the place, and it is growing with astonishing rapidity. There is not a house, or even a vacant room, to be had in the place. One mile east of Urichsville is Dennison, an important station on the road. The most important machine shops of the railroad company are located at this point, and it is to this road what Altoona is to the Pennsylvania Central. The land between Dennison and Urichsville has been laid out in town lots, and the two places are rapidly growing together. A few years hence a population of several thousand will no doubt be gathered to this point.

By the way, Urichsville is not the only place that has been benefitted by the construction of the Pittsburgh, Columbus and Cincinnati road. The entire region through which it passes has been greatly benefitted. Old towns and villages have been galvanized into new life, while new ones are springing up all along the line of the road. Industrial interests of every kind are being benefitted, and the material wealth of the two hundred miles through which it passes greatly increased. Others are sharing in the benefits as well. The road has been well constructed and equipped and is rapidly securing a large share of the patronage of the traveling community. Time, distance and expenses are all saved, while every possible effort is made to secure the comfort and safety of the passengers.

Three miles south of Urichsville is Newport, a small village of some ten or twelve houses. Last spring the Methodist congregation worshipping there commenced the erection of a new house of worship, which was dedicated on Sabbath, the 24th ult. The building is a substantial frame, forty by fifty feet, and surmounted with a belfry, furnished with a good bell. The entire cost was three thousand six hundred dollars, sixteen hundred of which had to be provided for on the day of dedication. Long before the appointed hour for service, the hills and valleys were alive with the multitudes pouring in from every direction, on foot, on horseback, in wagons and in carriages. Every available means for conveyance seemed to have been called into requisition. The ample audience room was crowded to its utmost capacity with the hundreds who eagerly sought admittance, while hundreds of others lingered outside at the doors and windows, unable to gain admission. The dedicatory services were under the direction of President Pershing, of the Pittsburgh Female College, who preached the morning sermon. In the evening the pulpit was occupied by Dr. S. F. Miner, the efficient and popular Presiding Elder of the District. Collections were taken after both services, and amounted to the handsome sum of sixteen hundred and seventy-seven dollars—more than enough to meet all liabilities. Great praise is due to the pastors, Rev. Geo. W. Denries and J. C. Castle, for their efficient services, in completing the undertaking, and to John Welsh, Jr., Eli and Henry Westheffer, James Tracy and F. Buckey, laymen, for their valuable co-operation. The entire congregation acquitted themselves nobly.

Last Sabbath, the 8th instant, another M. E. Church was dedicated at Rockville, eight miles north of Urichsville. The Church is a frame, of about the same size as the one at Newport, though not so well finished. The cost was twenty-two hundred dollars, one thousand of which remained unpaid on the day of dedication. President Pershing's services were once more called into requisition. He preached the opening sermon, at 10½ o'clock A. M., and was followed in the evening by Rev. T. N. Boyle, pastor of the Hamline Chapel charge in the city of Steubenville, who rendered most efficient services during the entire day. The collections amounted to one thousand and fifty dollars. The members worshiping there number but thirty-five, but under the efficient leadership of the pastor, Rev. J. F. Huddleston, carried the enterprise to a successful and triumphant completion.

A few months ago a splendid new M. E. Church, which cost twenty-two thousand dollars, was dedicated at New Philadelphia, some ten miles from Rockford, and on Friday last the new building of the Seminary, under the care of Rev. A. D. Lee, at Newmarket, ten miles east of Urichsville, was formally opened for the reception of pupils. Addresses were delivered by Dr. J. M. Reid, Editor of the Western Christian Advocate, published in Cincinnati, and by Dr. D. L. Dempsey, Presiding Elder of the Steubenville District. A large audience was present and both the speakers were peculiarly happy in their efforts. Thus you see, Messrs. Editors, that this part of the Buckeye State is awake to the importance of the educational and religious movements of the day.

Weston on Exhibition.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ST. LOUIS, December 9.—Weston, the pedestrian, lectured to a fair audience in Mercantile Library Hall, to-night, after which he showed off his various paces and walked nineteen times around the Hall, a little over a mile, in nine minutes and forty seconds.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Election Returns Headquarters.

The members of the City Executive Committee of the Union Republican party will meet for the reception of election returns, this evening, at the Editorial Rooms of the Pittsburgh GAZETTE, Fifth street. It is earnestly requested that our friends send in the returns as soon as counted.

JOSEPH A. BUTLER,
Chairman.

Robinson District Teachers' Association.

This Association met according to previous adjournment at school room No. 7 (R. Morrow instructor,) on Saturday morning, December 7th. During the forenoon the teacher exhibited his method of teaching to a considerable number of persons, who, apparently, were well pleased with the interest manifested by both pupils and teacher. At the close of these exercises addresses were made to the scholars by members of the Association and others.

After a recess of one hour, during which the audience partook of refreshments prepared by the ladies, the afternoon exercises were introduced by R. H. Kelly delivering a lecture—subject "Sherman's Campaign," which was listened to with marked attention—the fact that Mr. Kelley had personally participated in the campaign rendering it additionally interesting. This was followed by a class drill on Mental Arithmetic by A. Smith, and select reading by Messrs. Andrews and Shaw, which closed the regular exercises. The audience was then favored with an original humorous poem, by Mr. A. B. Young, President of the School Board, entitled "The Teachers and Schools of Robinson Township."

The Association then adjourned to meet at Walker's mill school room, on Saturday, December 21st, at which time the following programme will be presented: Select Reading—Messrs. Morrow and Glenn. Class Drills—Compound Sentences, M. R. Kebb. Ethnography—W. J. Stewart. Lectures—Duties of Teachers, C. Shaw. Tides—R. H. Kelly. A cordial welcome will be given to all teachers and others who can be present from other districts.

Narrow Escape.

Accidents from the use of kerosene lamps are of such frequent occurrence that we often are surprised at the careless manner in which they are used. Scarcely a week passes during which we do not hear of some person having been frightfully burned, or perhaps a house set on fire and consumed; yet people persist in the use of the very article from which danger is at all times imminent, with as much carelessness as though it was perfectly harmless. Friday evening last, a young woman residing with the family of Rev. S. Burt, Centre Avenue, narrowly escaped being burned to death from the use of one of these lamps. She had been left in charge of the children, and during the evening had occasion to go to the cellar. In descending the steps, she missed her footing and was precipitated to the bottom of the stairs. The lamp, which she was carrying in her hand, was broken and an explosion ensued, setting fire to her clothing. Fortunately, just at the moment the accident occurred, two young ladies had called at the house, and hearing her screams rushed to the assistance of the girl. They succeeded in extinguishing the flames before she had been seriously injured, and assisted her to bed. She was considerably burned, but is rapidly recovering.

Heavy Robbery.

A heavy robbery was committed on the Pennsylvania Railroad, Sunday morning, of which we have the following particulars: On Saturday evening, Mr. David Arnheim, residing at No. 224 Lacock street, Allegheny city, left Philadelphia for this city, at 11:15, having in his possession $1,600 in money, a check for $150, payable to his order ten days after date, drawn by C. Pierce, of the Great Western Hotel, Philadelphia, and a certificate of deposit of $300 in favor of J. Stud, all of which was in a pocket book which he carried in a pocket in the inside of his vest. He took the middle berth of the sleeping car, and soon fell into a sound sleep from which he did not awake until the train had passed Harrisburgh some distance, when he discovered his loss. He telegraphed to this city and to Philadelphia, to prevent payment on the check and certificate of deposit, and immediately on his arrival here reported his loss to the detectives of the railroad company, who are at work on the case. Mr. Arnheim is of the opinion that he was drugged while asleep in the car.

The Fair.

The Homeopathic Charitable Fair, which was so liberally patronized during last week, was re-opened at two o'clock yesterday, and the immense throng which filled the Hall during the afternoon and evening, up to the time of closing, would indicate that the present week will be fully as successful as the one which has just past. All afternoon and evening the Hall was thronged with visitors, and the pleasant faces of the ladies in charge of the different booths plainly indicated that the receipts for the day exceeded their greatest expectations. The voting on the Mayoralty question was quite lively toward the close of the evening. The vote at eleven o'clock stood as follows: Riddle, 941; Blackmore, 721. The vote for the Editor's gown, slippers, &c., was as follows: Barr, 137; Seibeneck, 103; Brigham, 90; Foster, 19; scattering, 29. After this evening, we are informed, the voting will be by sealed ballot.

Good Templars.

The citizens of Braddock's Field assembled at Odd Fellows' Hall, in that place, last Friday evening, and organized a new Lodge of Good Templars, with over fifty members. The services were conducted by Hugh D. McGaw, District Deputy. A large delegation from Lodges of this city were present and aided in the ceremony. A short address was made by Mr. McGaw, and the Lodge adjourned to meet at the same place on Tuesday next.

The following officers were elected and intalled to serve for the ensuing term: W. C. T., M. J. Bennett; W. V. T., Miss Maggie Ashbault; W. S. L., C. Fritz; W. T., C. Fawcett, W. I. G., Miss Lizzie McCauly; W. A. S., S. Weaver; W. F. S., G. W. Soles; W. M., Jas. Fawcett; W. D. M., Miss O. B. Lynch; W. R. H. S., Miss Lizzie Wilson; W. L. H. S., Miss A. Wilson; P. W. C. T., George Fritz.

Serious Accident.

Mr. Cyrus Shade, an employee of the Allegheny Valley Railroad Company, met with a serious accident yesterday. He was engaged in pulling cars off the siding at Negley's Run, when the pole broke and one end of it striking him on the side of the face, dislocated his jaw and inflicted a severe wound on the cheek. He was insensible for a time from the effects of the blow, but the proper remedies being applied he returned to consciousness and was removed to the Greenwood Hotel, on Pike street, near the depot of the Allegheny Valley Railroad, where he received the proper medical attention. The accident occurred about eleven o'clock yesterday morning.

A Typo in Trouble.

Mary A Philips made information before Alderman McMasters, against a compositor in one of the daily offices, for obtaining board under false pretences. The prosecutrix keeps a boarding house on Second street, and she alleges that the defendant represented to her that he was engaged in the patent right business, at which he was making fifty dollars per day. That his board bill was allowed to run until it amounted to forty dollars, on the strength of these and other false representations, which bill the defendant now refuses to pay. This is one side of the case. He was arrested and held to bail for his appearance at Court.

Felonious Assault and Battery.—Thos. Sullivan yesterday made information before Alderman McMasters against Thomas McQuade, charging him with felonious assault and battery. He alleges that the defendant struck him above the eye with the but of a pistol, and knocked him down. The parties reside in Birmingham, where the difficulty occurred. The defendant was held to bail for his appearance at court.

A New Paper in New Castle.—On the 5th of December Mr. Thompson Burton issued the first number of his new weekly, in New Castle. It is styled the Champion, and is, we understand, to be the champion of all wrongs, political, social or religious, perfectly independent of party or prejudice. If it carries out this programme, which we hope it may, New Castle may be proud of the sheet, which it will do well to encourage.

A Magnificent Wagon—A Word About Carr & Hare's Wagon and Carriage Factory, Nos. 162 and 164 Penn Street.

Yesterday we had the pleasure of examining one of the finest specimens of Pittsburgh mechanism which has ever been turned out of a home workshop. It was a magnificent wagon manufactured by the well-known carriage and wagon makers, Messrs. Carr & Hare, whose complete and extensive establishment is located at Nos. 162 and 164 Penn street. The firm, anxious to sustain the reputation of home workmanship, more especially since there is constant rivalry between our city and eastern ones, put forward their best efforts on this specimen, and succeeded in producing a wagon which will prove a perambulating advertisement of no ordinary character. It is large, and covered with oiled canvas. The wheels, pole, axles and bed of the wagon are stout and substantial, and made from the very best quality of materials. The canvas is ornamented in an elaborate and artistic manner, bearing the name of the "Hope Spice Mills," which encircles a very fine painting of a female standing on the world, with her right hand pointing heavenward, while her left rests on a huge anchor. The design is magnificently worked out, and being illustrative of HOPE, is eminently proper as an ornamentation. The bed of the wagon, as well as the wheels, pole, axles and springs, are also very beautifully ornamented in colors. The wagon was manufactured for Messrs. Rinehart & Stevens, the widely known spice dealers of this city, and is certainly a credit to their business enterprise as well as to the firm who manufactured it. Perhaps, in connection with our notice of this magnificent piece of workmanship, which attracted our attention and excited our admiration, it will not be out of place to refer to the very full and complete assortment of vehicles of every description to be found in the warerooms of Messrs. Carr & Hare. We observed a number of elegant sleighs, cutters, carry-alls, buggies and light wagons. The sleighs were especially worthy of notice, being stout and substantial, and at the same time beautiful enough for fairy regions. These were manufactured for private citizens, and although of magnificent and elaborate workmanship, the prices charged for them were very reasonable. Mr. Carr, the senior partner of the firm, is one of our most esteemed business men, having had forty years experience in his branch of trade, and his work has ever sustained high reputation. His partner, Mr. Hare, although by no means of so large experience, is a practical and careful gentleman, and fully understands every department of the trade. The firm employ none but the very best of skilled mechanics, and use nothing but the choicest timber, iron and materials in the construction of vehicles. Owing to the superior quality of every piece of work which leaves the establishment, the firm find themselves kept constantly running to their greatest capacity to supply orders pouring in from all directions. Their prices are very reasonable and parties bestowing patronage upon them have assurance of receiving the full worth of their money in return. The repairing of vehicles of all descriptions is made a specialty, and work entrusted to their care is attended to promptly and in the best style of workmanship. From personal acquaintance and knowledge of their high character and reputation as manufacturers, we can recommend Messrs. Carr & Hare to our readers, and bespeak for them a continuance of the generous patronage hitherto awarded, and of which they are so eminently deserving.

The Burning Ship.

Never was a ship burned before a more appreciative or fashionable audience than that which assembled last night at the Academy of Music, on the occasion of the production of the beautiful cantata with the above title. The entertainment was a complete success. Under the excellent management of Mr. J. C. Hall the scenery worked like a charm, and the mechanical effects were given with unusual brilliancy and truth. The amateurs who assisted in the production performed their allotted parts with decided ability. Where so many participated we can hardly venture either praise or criticism, but will risk being deemed invidious by paying special compliment to Miss Cora Brown, Miss Riddle, Miss Patterson, Miss Clouse, and Mrs. Sawyer. They all sang well and sweetly. The duett and chorus "Thou who art forever keeping" was rendered with very fine effect by Miss Brown and Dr. J. G. McCandless, and was the gem of the evening. In bass solo Prof. Horner developed a rich deep voice under admirable control and cultivation. "Our House" by Mrs. McCutcheon was a soprano execution of decided merit, and was rendered with much feeling. Mr. Clarence Rinehart, in a tenor solo entitled "We see the lightning flashing," won much applause. Prof. Lawton in his various parts met with pleasing evidences of the favor in which he was held by the audience. The Allegheny Quartette Club ably sustained its high reputation in the rendition of the quartette "Watch her then Carefully." The concert was a grand success, and reflected much credit on Messrs. Manning and Alexander, under whose auspices it was held. The grand square "Schomacker" Piano, and Estey Cottage Organ, used on the occasion, was furnished by Messrs. Barr, Knake & Buettler, No. 12 St. Clair street.

Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—Miss Emilie Melville appeared for the first time this season last night. The play was Fanchon and she fully sustained her great reputation as one of the best soubrettes in the country. She sang "Il Baccio" very sweetly, and her shadow dance was very natural and childlike. The audience, however, was not nearly as good as the actress, and the present management really deserves to be better sustained. The Opera House has been the only theatre running the legitimate drama this season, and a succession of excellent stars has been kept up in spite of the merest shadows of houses. If our people do not reward the the efforts of the management better we shall find ourselves one day without a theatre.

STADT THEATRE.—Our German friends have gotten the Old Theatre into their hands and are running it, we believe, with some success. The three dwarfs, who are now playing there, are wonderful and would repay any one who will spend an evening there, even if he does not understand a word of German. A contemporary says that they are nothing but boys. If they are, they are the most wonderful ones we have ever seen, and their acting is scarcely equalled on the American stage. Their comedy is the most amusing thing we have ever seen for a long time.

Ristori.

To-morrow evening that matchless queen of tragedy, Madame Adelaide Ristori, will appear at the Academy of Music, to once more thrill and charm a Pittsburgh audience with her unapproachable interpretation of the legitimate drama. We are among those who admire Ristori, not because it is fashionable to do so, but because she is the possessor of genius. On rare ability alone she has forced her way upward, and has provoked admiration wherever there was refinement enough to appreciate her grand efforts as they should be appreciated. She is a study, and although speaking on the stage the musical language of her own country, a great disadvantage certainly to an American audience and equally so to her, still there is poetry and life in her every gesture and movement and facial expression, and her genius flashes upon the audience who understand not her Italian as a gleam of sunshine pierces the dark cloud. We trust she will receive a generous welcome at the hands of our people and that the Academy will be thronged on each of the several occasions with large and brilliant audiences. "Medea" will be given on Wednesday evening, "Elizabeth" on Thursday, and "Marie Antoinette" on Friday. Secured seats may be obtained at C. C. Mellor's music store, No. 81 Wood street.

Produce Commission Business.—We call the attention of our readers in town and country to the card, in another column, of Messrs. Meanor & Harper, Produce and Commission Merchants. These gentlemen have, by a faithful and energetic attention to consignments, been able to realize the outside market rates for all flour, grain, and other commodities confided to their agency. They charge very moderate commissions, while it is always better for the owner of produce to pay them than attend to their own sales. As the firm are every day actively engaged in the current business of the city and know all its ins and outs. They are, besides, men of prompt business habits and of unquestionable integrity.

See advertisement in another column of Towle & Co's great sale, for good bargains.

Grand Concert To-Night.—To-night, at Masonic Hall, a grand vocal and instrumental concert will be given by the pupils of Mrs. E. A. Sawyer, assisted by a number of highly talented amateur performers. The programme embraces many exquisite gems of song, and some of the finest compositions of the old masters. Mrs. Sawyer is a lady of this city, and is very well known in musical circles as the possessor of rare talent and ability, and we hope her efforts on this occasion will be generously seconded by an appreciative public.

Illustrated Sermons.—Rev. E. M. Long, of Philadelphia, preached the first of a series of sermons at the First Methodist Church, Fifth street, last evening, which he proposes to continue during the week. Each sermon is illustrated by fine large paintings. The method is a new one in this locality, but notwithstanding its novelty the congregation was highly interested, and appeared to be well pleased with it. The public are cordially invited to attend. The seats are free to all who desire to occupy them.

Trotting Over the Bridge.—Hugh Boyle, night watchman at the St. Clair street bridge, yesterday made information before Alderman Humbert against Werthy Byers and Michael Higgins, charging them with having trotted their horses over the St. Clair street suspension bridge. The defendants were arrested, and after a hearing released upon payment of costs.

New Music.—Just received by Barr, Knake & Buettler, 12 St. Clair street: "Golden Pathway in the Sky." Song by Tucker. "Yes, the Bright Dream is Over;" answer to "Is the Sweet Dream Broken?" Words by Carrie Bell Sinclair; Music by Knake. "In Thine Angel Beauty." Song. "Fra Diavolo;" Theo. Oesten.

Fire.—A slight fire occurred yesterday between two and three o'clock in the Steel works of Messrs. Anderson, Cook & Co., corner of Ross and Second streets, but was extinguished without loss. The alarm was sounded from box No. 16, and the department turned out promptly, but their services were not required.

Hand Crushed.—An employee at the Fort Wayne Depot, whose name we were unable to learn, had his hand crushed yesterday while handling a heavy casting. He was taken in a carriage to the office of Dr. McCook, on Fifth street, who attended to the injury.

Surety of the Peace.—Catharine Friel made information yesterday before Alderman Taylor, against her husband Hugh Friel, for surety of the peace, alleging that he threatened to take her life. A warrant was issued for his arrest.

The Pittsburgh Gazette

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1867.

IT is deserving of remark that the newspapers of this country which demanded the most savage punishments should be inflicted upon many leaders in the late rebellion, are most incensed that Great Britain should punish the Fenian leaders at all.

THE President is represented by telegraph as emboldened by the defeat of the impeachment scheme. Nothing could be more natural. He has won a great victory, and feels that he is conqueror. Congress has given him a cognovit against itself, and he may well exult.

DOUBTLESS it would be a convenience to American citizens who are engaged in commerce, if our Government owned as many colonies and naval depots as Great Britain. Mr. SEWARD is infatuated with the idea of accommodating these gentlemen, no matter what stress he may put upon the Treasury in consequence of his speculations. It is to be hoped there is sense enough in Congress to put an extinguisher on a line of enterprise which has no limit, and in which every indulgence furnishes an argument for going still farther.

THE ELECTION TO-DAY.

The first election for municipal officers of Pittsburgh, under the Consolidation Act, will be held to-day. So far as the interests of the city are concerned it is of great consequence to get a right start. From whatever point of view the matter may be viewed, it is not only impolitic but suicidal, to allow the Democrats to elect the Mayor or any other candidates on the general ticket. Undoubtedly a good many Republicans were opposed to Consolidation, and are soured because the measure carried notwithstanding their opposition. For them to stay away from the polls, or going to vote with the Democrats, will only make what they account bad, a good deal worse. Next year is a Presidential election. Are these dissatisfied Republicans prepared to turn the city government over into the hands of the Democrats, in a crisis of so much gravity? Are our manufacturers and other business men prepared to have the results of any dissatisfaction they may feel trumpeted through the land as evidences of a strong reaction against the Republican policy and in favor of the Democratic? We do not believe it. The Republicans of Pittsburgh cannot afford to do so unwise a thing. We urge them, consequently, to go to the polls, and vote the whole ticket, as a duty both to themselves and their candidates.

THE DIXMONT HOSPITAL.

The west wing of this building, of which we have heretofore given the details, is so nearly finished that it will be ready for occupancy on the first of January. The addition of so many rooms will be a great comfort to the patients, who are now necessarily crowded beyond what is suitable.

The foundation for the east wing is completed, and the expectation of the Managers is to put up and finish the superstructure during the coming year.

When this shall be done the building will present a front of one thousand feet, and will have the advantage of the latest improvements for the proper custody and treatment of the insane.

Still, it cannot be doubted that even with this increase of accommodations, the demand will speedily outrun the supply, insomuch that the Hospital here, as well as the other at Harrisburg, will be unable to contain, on any conditions, the whole number of applicants for admission.

There is a popular apprehension that cases of insanity, ratably to the whole population, are on the increase. Some statistics which have been submitted to the public seem to justify this supposition. Those who take this view of the case attribute the increase to the larger strain now put on the mental faculties as compared with what they formerly endured. They maintain that the thinking machinery is run with a velocity and continuity beyond what it can bear.

We suspect this view, upon a strict survey and analysis, will not be sustained. In former ages insane persons were deemed to have been smitten of God, or as possessed of devils, and were driven forth from among men as accursed. They found such refuge as they could in desert places, in the fastnesses of rocks, and in the shadow of forests. Of their numbers none knew or cared. Even quite recently, when insanity had been demonstrated to be a disease, and amenable in numerous instances to curative treatment, those afflicted with it were either allowed to wander at will or were rudely confined, as their friends thought proper. Of the number, condition and care of these wretched beings no definite and reliable account was accessible, for none existed.

Within comparatively a few years past public and private institutions have been created for the suitable detention and medical treatment of this class of sufferers. Perhaps it will not be straining a point to say that this is one of the ripest fruits yet gathered of Civilization and Christianity. There is certainly nothing in all antiquity to compare with it for beauty of conception and grandeur of execution. Antiquity built palaces for kings. In these last days palaces are erected for the outcast and afflicted. In this the change from then to now stands revealed palpable, vast and transcendant, and the moderns wear the palm. Humanity in them has an altitude and a symmetry of proportions never before equalled.

The existence of hospitals for the insane, and the benefits resulting therefrom, have caused the number of such individuals to be more accurately known than it was in years gone by. The cases seem to be multiplying because more is known of them.

In view of these facts and others of like import, several suggestions have been made. One is, that the State shall erect a new hospital, intended primarily to accommodate the northern portion of the Commonwealth, and under the same general regulations as are applied to existing houses. Another is, that the new establishment shall be specifically assigned for incurable patients, leaving the present ones for the treatment of recent cases, which give promise of cure. Physicians, whose specialty is insanity, do not appear to be perfectly agreed as to the advisability of this measure. At their last National Convention, held during the past summer, this point was under consideration and some contrariety of opinion was exhibited. However, we think it safe to say that the preponderance of sentiment was for a separate house for this class of patients. Still another suggestion is that the additional house shall be devoted to the criminal insane. It is a dictate of common propriety that virtuous persons who have the misfortune to fall into insanity, shall not be subjected to contact and association with those whose disease is of a criminal type.

Whichever of these propositions shall be adopted, adequate provision will be made for all the insane now in the State, or who may be in it until the population shall be greatly augmented. So far it does not matter which scheme shall be agreed upon. But the urgent necessity of another house is deeply felt by those who are familiar with the subject, and will not be long in forcing itself upon the attention of the People and the Legislature.

In Massachusetts it is proposed to erect a new and large Asylum on what is known as the "Gheel plan." It seems that in Belgium, twenty-six miles from Antwerp, the town of Gheel has been for centuries the receptacle of idiots and lunatics from the neighboring towns and cities. These unfortunates have been taken into the families of the farmers and furnished with employment. In this way tens of thousands of these classes whom we confine have been taken care of by the peasantry, whose successful treatment of them has been remarkable.

Dr. HOWE writes that the advantages of this system are:

"First—Employment at domestic and agricultural work in company with sane persons, and mostly in the open air. This promotes bodily and mental health, or at least retards the progress of disease.

"Second—Social and family relations with sane persons. This keeps alive and active the unperverted sentiments and affections, and helps to restore the moral and mental balance.

"Third—The greatest possible amount of personal freedom. This not only promotes bodily health, but by preserving self-respect, promotes mental health. Be it remembered that the very nature of the community permitted more freedom, and more social intercourse between sane and insane persons, than could be had elsewhere; and that even those who were restrained by gyves on the ankles, or cuffs on the hands, could still go about the streets, and have more or less of social relations with the sane world.

"Bear in mind, also, that even the poor were not regarded by the peasantry as paupers, for their board was paid; they were profitable, not burdensome; and this ensured respect even from the selfish, who found moreover that they were most useful and least troublesome when well fed and kindly treated."

FARM, GARDEN AND HOUSEHOLD.

Hail, winter! the resting time of vegetable life. We gather strength in sleep and by repose. So do the animals, to which man is so close akin in his physical and even intellectual structure. Plants also undergo internal changes, which fit them for the new life of the spring. The maple stem contains little sugar during the season of growth, but gains it from the changes which occur to the contents of its cells during the period of rest. The grasses and winter grains ripen their roots, so to speak, and we presume that no vegetables which maintain their vitality through the cold season, approach the spring unchanged, but they are better prepared to commence a new growth. The soil firmly bound by the frost fetters is no exception to the rule of improvement. Simple freezing is very beneficial, freezing and thawing still more so, and the more thorough the exposure to the action of the elements, the greater the advantages. Particles of plant food, before unavailable, are brought into a condition to be dissolved by water, and taken up by the plants. Stiff clays are ameliorated, peaty soils are made friable, and a volume might be written on the good effects of frost on the soil. It makes up the dwellers in the temperate and frigid zones the lack of the intenser action of warm airs, moisture, fermentation and decay upon the soil and its constituents, occurring in the tropics.

Long evenings have come. It is of the first importance that a portion of these should be devoted to the cultivation of the mind. Summer has necessarily been devoted to labor. The mind needs cultivation as much as the soil, and it is generally the state of the mind that makes farming profitable or otherwise.

Rest is not a folding of the hands in idleness; that is rust, or its equivalent. A change is more resting than a cessation of labor. If the hands rest, let us set the brain at work, and let the social qualities find useful employment, for thus shall we be invigorated in body and mind, and all the better prepared for hard work when it comes. After all, the rest of winter, to most farmers, is more in change of work than in anything else. Work enough may be done in the shortest day to give any man good digestion, and to soften even a bed of straw.

SCHOOLS.—Keep your children in the best schools. Make the free schools as good as they can be, but if there are better, use them. There is no compensation for the loss of the advantage of education.

PERIODICALS are indispensable now to keep a man abreast of his times. No investment pays better than a few dollars in the best agricultural and horticultural journals. Farming is progressive like other arts, and there is money saved and gained in the hints which these papers drop in their monthly or weekly visits.

ACCOUNTS.—Have everything settled up by the close of this month, and ascertain definitely the result of the year's transactions. Know whether you have gained or lost, and how much. Farmers are more negligent than any other class in this matter. They have much barter with their neighbors, and at the store or market town, and often accounts run for years without any settlement. They do not know how they stand with the world, and cannot tell whether any crop they cultivate is a loss or gain to them. This is bad farming, and often leads to bad morality. Keep accounts and settle them once a year, for your own sake as well as your neighbors'. Begin the next year with a clean balance sheet.—American Agriculturist.

Mice and Young Trees.

In some orchards these little animals play havoc during the coldest part of the winter, in living upon the bark, leaving scarcely a tree untouched, and destroying most of them. Rabbits are sometimes extremely destructive, but the dog and the gun leave so few by the time hard weather sets in as not to occasion any alarm or to apprehend any extensive damage.

Various remedies are proposed. Mr. David Gray, of Oneida county, takes one pound of tallow and two quarts of common tar, melts and mixes thoroughly and applies while warm, with a paint brush, to the trunks of his trees, as high as he thinks there is any danger of their being gnawed. He says the tar thus mixed has no injurious effect on the trees. P. H. W., of Mohawk, N. Y., condemns the tar application, saying that a neighbor of his tried it, and it killed nearly all the trees.

Another person recommends the tramping down of the snow around the trees. The mice lay low in loose stuff, and will not penetrate hard earth or snow to get at the trees. The plan generally adopted, and with success, is to bank up the earth around the tree a foot high. It is done expeditiously, and on the score of labor also it has the advantage over others. There are several other remedies mentioned; but as the banking up process is simple, inexpensive, and effectual, it is to be recommended. It also protects the roots against severe frost, as well as an undue quantity of moisture with which the earth is usually saturated in winter, at least in most localities.

We like, however, bandaging the exposed portion of the stem better than any other plan suggested. Any old stuffs of cotton, flax or wool will answer. Let this bandage commence an inch or so below the surface, and extend up sufficiently high to place the exposed stem beyond the reach of the animals, and twined. It will be found to be a complete protection, and requires less time than any of the other modes.

Plundering the Soil.

There is too much truth in the statement of a correspondent of the London Mark Lane Express, respecting the deterioration of our New England soil. The time must come when the systems adopted in the old country will be adopted here, when we shall return to the soil in some form the elements of fertility which we take from it in our crops. The present prices of flour and corn furnish occasion for reflection by all land owners of New England, as to the propriety of depending on the west for these products:

"With respect to the old States, which formerly raised a supply—never very large—of wheat for exportation, they have long ceased to do so, and are, to a very large extent, dependent upon the western States. The New England States do not raise more than enough for two months' consumption in the year for their own population, and receive their supplies of flour for the rest of the season from the West. The State of New York raises about half that her population requires; and the city of New York would be starved if it had no other resources than its own State. The same falling off in the production of wheat as well as other produce, both animal and vegetable, with the exception of Indian corn, has taken place in Virginia, Kentucky, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, &c., and even in the newer States of Ohio, Missouri, Indiana, Illinois, &c., which now do not produce more than two thirds of what they did a few years since. The cause of the progressive decadence of nearly all the lands brought under cultivation is obvious enough, and is fully acknowledged by all the American writers on the subject. It arises from the systematic scourging of the soil, by continuing to grow wheat or Indian corn so long as it will yield enough to afford a margin of profit. To such an extent is this practiced in the New England States, that a large proportion of the land which formerly yielded good crops of grain of all kinds is not now cultivated for cereals. The practice with young farmers is to run out the land left them by their fathers, and then sell it as they best can, and go to the western States, where the finest land can be bought at a dollar an acre, requiring no clearing, as there is no timber; and so free is the soil from stones or roots, that the plough may be driven miles through it without meeting with an obstruction. So easy, in fact, is the cultivation of the prairie land, that one man and a couple of boys can manage from 160 to 200 acres. Russell mentions one or two instances in which 125 acres of Indian corn and 50 acres of wheat were raised and harvested by one man and two boys, besides saving 80 acres of hay in the meadows. He also speaks of the President's farm of 160 acres, managed by two young men.

BAKED CUSTARD.—Upon three eggs, well beaten, pour a pint of milk scalding hot, stirring all the time; sweeten to taste; flavor with lemon or rose water; bake twenty minutes in an oven at a moderate heat; it will bake better when the dish containing it is placed in another partly filled with hot water. A custard made in this way is vastly superior to one made of cold milk, as it does not "whey."

BISCUIT PUDDING.—Crumble four moderate sized biscuits in two pints of sweet milk; take a piece of butter the size of an egg, one cup of sugar, three eggs; beat them separate, and pour the white on top; add a little nutmeg; bake half an hour.

TINCTURE OF LEMON.—Fill a pint bottle half full of brandy or whisky. When a lemon is used cut the rind up freely, and place it in the bottle, thus making your own extract for flavoring cake, etc.

LEMON PIE.—Grate the yellow part of the peel of one large lemon, and add it, with the juice, to two-thirds of a cup of sugar; mix smoothly one and one-half tablespoonful of flour to three quarters of a teacupful of water; stir all together, and add the well-beaten yelks of two eggs; bake, with only an undercrust, to a nice golden brown color; when done, pour over the top the whites of two eggs beaten to a stiff froth, with two tablespoonful of powdered white sugar; set in the oven for a few minutes to harden.

CURRANT CAKE.—Take two pounds of flour, half a pound of butter rubbed in the flour, half a pound of moist sugar, a few caraway seeds, three or four tablespoonful of yeast, and a pint of milk made a little warm. Mix all together, and let it stand an hour or two at the fire to rise; then beat it up with three eggs and a half pound of currants. Put it in a tin, and bake two hours in a moderate oven.

SETTLING COFFEE.—The following is recommended as being a good way not only to settle coffee, but to prevent the escape of its aroma: For one pound of coffee take one egg and beat it well. When the coffee is nicely browned, and cool enough not to cook the egg, pour the egg over it, stirring it until every kernel is coated with a varnish, and let it stand a few minutes in a warm place until it dries. This will prevent the escape of all aroma, is not affected by moisture, and the egg helps the coffee when it is ground and steeped.

APPLE AND PASTE PUDDING IN BASIN.—Make one pound of paste, roll it a quarter of an inch thick, lay some in a bowl, fill it with apples cut in quarters, add two cloves, two ounces of sugar, a little butter; put another piece of paste on the top, and join the edge nicely; tie it in a cloth and boil. It can be served up either in the basin or turned out. Do not open the top to put more sugar in, as it spoils the flavor and makes it heavy. All fruit puddings may be done the same way.

MINCE PIES WITHOUT MEAT.—Take figs and raisins in any convenient proportion, chop and add a little lemon juice or chopped sour apple. Stew it before putting on the crust. This requires no sweetening or flavoring, and is perfectly healthful. Materials can always be got in the market, and are no more expensive than those which require sugar to sweeten them.

MINCE PIES WITHOUT APPLES OR MEAT.—Six crackers, one cup of molasses, two cups of sugar, one half cup of vinegar, and two cups of boiling water, will make three pies.

Another Pacific Railroad.

The success of two of the great Pacific railroads is quickening others. The Texan route is once more talked of, and that from Memphis. The happy population, just confederated and freshly compounded, who keep polar frosts from beating too harshly on our lake shores, are anxious to see their Grand Trunk carried across the continent. Now it seems that the Northern Pacific road have surveyed two routes from Lake Superior to the Red River of the North, one commencing at Superior and crossing the Mississippi at Crow Wing, the other starting from Bayfield and crossing at St. Cloud. In the western division passes have been found through the Cascade Mountains at an altitude of three thousand feet. These facts will be published in detail the next month, when it will be seen that the greatest accomplishment yet made is only the whet to a greater, and that more daring feats are in contemplation than have ever before caused our wonder. And in connection with this westward progress it must be borne in mind that the line from Galveston northward, along the whole bank of the Mississippi to Missouri, is not abandoned, but more seriously spoken of every day.

THE Philadelphia Post says truly:

"Let cowards say what they will, the impeachment of Andrew Johnson was a measure to which the Republican party was pledged. Impeachment was the only solution of the question. It was the logical end of the irrepressible conflict between a Congress that made just laws and a President that refused to execute them. The Republican party could not escape the responsibility, and had no way of preventing the issue except by flight. It chose cowardice as a refuge. The Capitol surrendered to the White House! Andrew Johnson is the hero of the day. Probably he knew his men when he sent an intimidating message to Congress, for he understood that there was no danger of arousing their self-respect, and he had great hopes that he might excite their fears."

Faith Well Founded.

In old times, at the commencement of every season, it was the fashion to take a strong cathartic as a safeguard against a change of temperature. It was a worse than senseless practice. The people of our day understand the matter better. Instead of depleting the system they reinforce it. In the method they adopt they exhibit a wise discrimination. Instead of resorting to the vitiated stimulants of commerce, or any of the compounds derived from them, they put their faith in the only absolutely pure invigorant procurable in the market—HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. Their faith is well founded. Never has any tonic medicine been prepared with such scrupulous precision and conscientious care. It is a vegetable compound of which every ingredient is sound, wholesome and medicinal in the true sense of the word. Now, we have three prominent national complaints. One-half of the adult population of the United States suffer more or less, either from diseases of the stomach, derangement of the liver, or affections of the kidneys. In no other land under Heaven are these maladies so general as in this country, and HOSTETTER'S BITTERS is a specific for them all, unless organic in their origin, and therefore beyond cure. And let those who are fortunate enough to be exempt from them at present understand one great fact, viz: that an occasional use of this vitalizing tonic will as certainly prevent them as the sun will prevent the earth from freezing under his direct rays.

Important to Country Merchants.

Merchants visiting the city to lay in their supply of goods would do well to call at the great medicine emporium of DR. KEYSER, 140 Wood street, and put in a supply of his invaluable PECTORAL SYRUP and BLOOD SEARCHER, the former of which has been used in the Doctor's practice for over twenty years, and has saved thousands from the consumptive's grave. DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP will invariably give satisfaction to all persons afflicted with coughs and hoarseness and the usual pulmonary maladies incident to this season of the year, whilst DR. KEYSER'S BLOOD SEARCHER is daily curing some of the most hopeless cases of disease, of a class little cared for by physicians, and usually deemed incurable, such as cancers, white swellings, scrofulas, tetters. It is exceeding proper now, when the change from fall to winter is about to occur, that most of those who are debilitated and prostrated by sickness, should resort to some such a remedy as DR. KEYSER'S BLOOD SEARCHER, which will not only cleanse and purify the natural channels of the human system, but at the same time sweep off delirium and reinstate vigor and nervous energy. It is wholly unlike most stimulating compounds and bitters, which for a while spur, but afterwards sink into greater prostration. Country merchants and farmers cannot do better than to purchase from half a dozen to a dozen of Dr. KEYSER'S medicines, as in doing so they will confer lasting benefit upon all whose health and life has been prolonged and improved. These two medicines of DR. KEYSER'S have acquired a hold on the affections of the people commensurate only with their superlative merits.

Ask for DR. KEYSER'S BLOOD SEARCHER and take no other, at 140 Wood street. Resident consultation office, 120 Penn street.

The WEEKLY GAZETTE has been enlarged to the same size as the Daily, and is now the largest, cheapest and best weekly family newspaper in the State. It should be in the house of every farmer, mechanic and business man. It gives each week forty solid columns of current news by telegraph and mail, the leading editorials of the daily, and a choice selection of literary and scientific items, together with everything important pertaining to the world of politics. Its agricultural columns will be edited in such a manner as to find favor with the farmer and gardener. The market reports of the WEEKLY GAZETTE are by common consent acknowledged to be the standard authority for both buyers and sellers, and in commercial circles in Western Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio and Western Virginia are without equal. The files of the GAZETTE are used exclusively by the Civil Courts of Allegheny county, as reference in important issues, to determine the ruling prices in the markets at the time of the business transaction in dispute.

Our Agents will favor us by getting up their clubs at once, and not allowing their present ones to expire, as we are anxious that none of our readers should be deprived of a week's news. Additions to clubs can be made at any time, at yearly rates. Postmasters and Merchants are requested to act as Agents.

HEALING WITHOUT DRUGS.
The true curative plan or natural healing art is based entirely upon physiological principles—upon the ACTIVITY OF FUNCTIONS in appropriating or using the LIFE SUSTAINERS, and their nutrient value being assimilated in a manner that is potent in the BANISHMENT OF DISEASE from the system. But before we can heal through the inherent vital properties of the tissues, we bring the RATIONAL MATERIA MEDICA to bear, in DRAWING OUT THE DISEASE MEDICINES, and morbid materials through the activity of the depurating channels, sanatory provisions and safety valves, with which the system is bountifully supplied. But when these are either obstructed or not understood, the penalty is the same; therefore instead of quaking lest we die before we have gained more money than we can use, it is our highest policy to learn first the laws of righteousness in the bodily tabernacle, in order that we may live to inherit our natural wealth of happiness. By our normal tonics, alteratives, stimulants, sedatives, &c., we get the FRIENDLY changes of vital action, without the corrosive wounds inflicted by drugs. By a correct dealing with causes in the province of disease, we eradicate the whole catalogue of parasites, among which are tape worm, erratic worm, &c.; also, tumors, cancers, ulcers, abscesses, dropsy, insanity, diseases of the bone or mailities, osteomalacia fragilitas ossium, deafness, liver complaint, dyspepsia, gout, rheumatism, neuralgia, and in short every disease that flesh is heir to, provided our remedial plan is strictly adhered to. We do not expect to please all. But those who have been the victims of the empyracism and ingenious lingo of similia similibus curantur, and contraria contrariis curantur practice; and now with PHYSICAL REDEMPTION, in its broadest sense, can try the Vis-Conservatrix Naturae Method, by giving us a call, at

To the Churches and Charitable Institutions of Pittsburgh, Allegheny and Vicinity.
THE CONVICTION HAVING become deepened in the minds of those most active in the Charitable Societies and Sunday Schools of the city that much effort for Sunday Schools is made useless, and charity to the poor wasted through the lack of a common basis of operation and a mutual understanding among the different bands of workers, the Board of Directors of the Young Men's Christian Association, at the recommendation of its Committee on City Evangelization, have resolved to call a Conference Meeting of representatives from the various churches and charitable societies, for an interchange of views and experience on these most important subjects.
It is earnestly requested that each Church and Association be represented by its Pastor or President and one or more members.

No. 6—NOW READY!
SOL SLOCUM;
OR,
The Maid of the Juniata,
BY EMERSON BENNETT,
Is the greatest product of his transcendantly great pen. It is a tale of the great border, and the characters which figure in it are as various as the many scenes through which they have to pass. One after another are introduced the hardy pioneer, the cunning trapper, the wily savage, the eccentric seeker after adventure, the tender maiden, severed from the force of circumstances from friends and kindred, the heroic and daring youth whose aspirations are lofty, whose soul is fearless, and whose deeds are daring, together with a miscellaneous crowd of adventurous spirits presenting almost every phase of human character, each of whom plays his or her part in the thrilling drama. The story is replete with scenes and incidents which cause the blood of the reader to leap with electric force, and constantly alternating between joy and sorrow, tears and laughter, indignation and admiration. he suffers and rejoices with the characters, absolutely seeming to act with them, so intensely is he interested—so deeply is he spellbound. The story never flags from beginning to end, and the love portions of it are especially beautiful, and such as to enlist the sympathies of every lady reader. This great story is commenced in No. 6 of the present volume, and those who desire to read it should send in their orders. Once more we say, buy

SECURE PROFITABLE INVESTMENT.
THE
Central Pacific Railroad
First Mortgage Thirty-Year Six Per Cent. Coupon Bonds,
Principal and Interest Payable in Gold Coin,
Represent the preferred claim upon one of the most important lines of communication in the world, as it is the sole link between the Pacific Coast and the Great Interior Basin, over which the immense overland travel must pass, and the
MAIN TRUNK LINE ACROSS THE CONTINENT,
The road is now nearly completed from Sacramento to the richest Mining Regions in the Salt Lake Basin, and is being rapidly carried forward by the largest force of laborers ever employed by any Railroad Company on this continent. The natural, legitimate, commercial business of the road surpasses all previous expectation, and is profitable beyond parallel, even among the oldest roads in existence. The Earnings and Expenses for the quarter ending October 31, were as follows, IN GOLD:

GROSS EARNINGS.	OPERATING EXPENSES.	NET EARNINGS.
$593,847.92	$102,088.61	$491,759.31

This result, however, would have been far greater but for the inability of wagon teams to forward the freight and passengers from the temporary terminus in the mountains.
The United States Government and the State and cities of California have so aided and fostered the Great Enterprise, that the Company will assume very light annual interest obligations, and will have the following ample Resources at command for the construction:

Donations in Lands, Bonds, Concessions, etc., (without lien.)	$12,800,000
Capital Stock, Net Earnings, etc., (no lien.)	11,000,000
Loans, (subordinate lien.)	3,400,000
U. S. Subsidy Bonds, 726 miles, (subordinate lien.)	25,517,000
First Mortgage Bonds	25,517,000
Resources, first 725 miles	$77,234,000

The FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS are in sums of $1,000 each, with semi-annual gold coupons attached, and are offered for sale, for the present, at 95 per cent. and accrued interest from July 1st, in currency, at which rate they yield nearly Nine per cent. upon the Investment.
These Bonds, authorized by the Pacific Railroad Acts of Congress are issued only as the work progresses, and to the same extent only as the Bonds granted by the Government, and are the prior lien upon the whole valuable property furnished by the above Resources. They possess special assurances and advantages over other Corporate Securities, and are destined to rank among THE BEST INVESTMENTS IN THE WORLD, from their unusual attractions of safety, soundness and profit.

525 MILES
OF THE
UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD,
Running West from Omaha,
ACROSS THE CONTINENT,
ARE NOW COMPLETED.
This brings the line to the eastern base of the Rocky Mountains, and it is expected that the track will be laid thirty miles farther, to Evans Pass, the highest point on the road, by January. The maximum grade from the foot of the mountains to the summit is but eighty feet to the mile, while that of many eastern roads is over one hundred. Work in the rock-cuttings on the western slope will continue through the winter, and there is now no reason to doubt that the entire grand line to the Pacific will be open for business in 1870.
The means provided for the construction of this Great National Work are ample. The United States grants its Six Per Cent. Bonds at the rate of $16,000 to $48,000 per mile, for which it takes a SECOND LIEN as security and receives payment to large if not to the full extent of its claims in services. These Bonds are issued as each twenty mile section is finished, and after it has been examined by United States Commissioners and pronounced to be in all respects a first class road, thoroughly supplied with depots, repair shops, stations, and all the necessary rolling stock and other equipments.
The United States also makes a donation of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, which will be a source of large revenue to the company. Much of this land in the Platte Valley is among the most fertile in the world, and other large portions are covered with heavy pine forests and abound in coal of the best quality.
The Company is also authorized to issue its own First Mortgage Bonds to an amount equal to the issue of the Government, and no more. Hon. E. D. Morgan and Hon. Oakes Ames are Trustees for the Bondholders, and deliver the Bonds to the Company only as the work progresses, so that they always represent an actual and productive value.
The authorized capital of the Company is One Hundred Million Dollars, of which over five millions have been paid in upon the work already done.
Earnings of the Company.
At present the profits of the Company are derived only from its local traffic, but this is already much more than sufficient to pay the interest on all the Bonds the Company can issue, if not another mile were built. It is not doubted that when the road is completed the through traffic of the only line connecting the Atlantic and Pacific States will be large beyond precedent, and, as there will be no competition, it can always be done at profitable rates.
It will be noticed that the Union Pacific Railroad is, in fact, a GOVERNMENT WORK, built under the supervision of Government officers, and to a large extent with Government money, and that its bonds are issued under Government direction. It is believed that no similar security is so carefully guarded, and certainly no other is based upon a larger or more valuable property. As the Company's
First Mortgage Bonds
Are offered for the present at NINETY CENTS ON THE DOLLAR, they are the cheapest security in the market, being more than 15 per cent. lower than United States Stocks. They pay
Six Per Cent in Gold,
Or OVER NINE PER CENT. upon the investment. Subscriptions will be received in Pittsburgh by

A new PAMPHLET AND MAP, showing the Progress of the Work, Resources for Construction, and Value of Bonds, may be obtained at the Company's Offices, or of its advertised agents, or will be sent free on application.

A GREAT FAMILY CONVENIENCE.
A new and novel arrangement for having HOT WATER BOILERS
attached to the back end of common cook stoves, so that the waste blaze which goes up the stove-pipe heats all the water needed in an ordinary sized family, by passing the blaze directly through the boiler, which sits over the pipe hole of the stove. This new arrangement can be put on to any No. 7, 8 or 9 common Cooking Stove, of any manufacture. Any person having a TRIUMPH, VICTORY, BLACK OAK, BEAUTY or UNION STOVE, or almost any other Cook Stove made in the Union, can have Boilers attached to their Stoves, including the Attachment, the Boiler and Lids, and Bibb Cock, for the moderate cost of SEVEN DOLLARS, by applying to

The Italian opera season has closed in New York. Maretzek has lost money he says. It often astonishes us when we think of the indomitable energy and inexhaustible resources of this same Max. We do not remember the season that he has not complained bitterly of his immense losses, and yet he goes on sticking to his mission of amusing the people, in spite of all these financial failures. Surely he cannot hold out much longer, for even the fortune of a Stewart or an Astor would topple under so many heavy blows.

We have been much troubled latterly by the fear that those wise people who are so kind as to be continually trying to teach people how to live on six hundred a year and keep a large and growing family in affluence and food and clothing, or who think that young unmarried men should live well and save money on two hundred dollars per annum gross, would by and by run out of suitable examples to refer to, for young people are so wicked now-a-days that they do not furnish an overwhelming number of brilliant ones in themselves. Illinois, however, has given us a good one, and we recommend it to those persons referred to above for use on the occasion of any sinful wedding feasts where several hundred dollars are spent in eatables and drinkables:

The Olney Journal has the following: A young couple were married in this city last week, having come several miles in a two horse wagon for that purpose. After the ceremony was over the groom invested ten cents in apples, which were soon disposed of, and the newly wedded returned to their rural home.

5.000 ACRES OF VALUABLE Timber, Coal and Mineral Lands FOR SALE.

Situate on the line of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad, in Cambria county, within a short distance of Wilmore Station; has a frontage on the Railroad of nearly three miles. Several veins of the best quality of pure rich bituminous coal underlie the whole tract. The veins rise gently from the Railroad towards the rear of the property, thus making it favorable for mining and easily drained. There is a large market for coke and it will cost but little to manufacture it. The property contains, besides the coal, several kinds of stratified IRON ORE; also LIME STONE, Fire and Potter's clays, sand stone for building and for glass manufacturers. Not far beneath the bed rock of the coal formation lies a valuable bed of Iron Ore, which has been opened and worked westward. A great portion of the tract is covered with valuable timber of large growth, such as Ash, Cherry, Linn, Poplar, Oak, &c. The facilities for transporting this timber, when manufactured into lumber, either east or west, are unsurpassed. There is a water power Saw Mill on the extreme part of the tract, and at the Railroad station there is an excellent steam Saw Mill, recently erected and now cutting 10,000 to 12,000 feet per day. The demand for lumber at this point is constant, and a much larger supply could be readily sold at the mill, while there is ample room and timber on this property for several such mills.

The improvements on the property are worth from $40,000 to $50,000. There are two large mansions built for former proprietors in elegant style; a large store house, shops, &c. and about ten tenements for workmen, with stables, &c.

These lands are also well adapted to farming purposes, and under proper agricultural treatment would yield good crops, while they are specially adapted to grazing purposes.

ILLEGAL LIQUOR SELLING.

The Commonwealth vs. George Green, indicted for selling liquor on Sunday, was next taken up. It appeared from the testimony that Green kept a saloon on Water street, First ward, and that he sold liquor to Thomas Flaherty, the prosecutor, Sunday, the 27th of October. The jury found a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to pay a fine of $75, pay the costs of prosecution and undergo an imprisonment of two months in the county jail. He was also indicted for selling liquor without license, to which he plead guilty. Sentence deferred.

The case was not concluded when Court adjourned.

A CARD.

To the Editor of the Louisville Courier:

Whereas, a report to the effect of my having two living wives—one in Alabama, the other in this State—has been circulated throughout the State of Kentucky, which report has a tendency to injure me and the cause in which I am engaged, I therefore pray you grant me a short space in one of the columns of your valuable paper, containing the facts with reference to said report, in order that I may be justified at the hands of the people of the State.

I married Miss Elizabeth Elenor Cunningham, eldest daughter of John M. Cunningham, of Monroe county, Arkansas, in March, 1857, with whom I live up to 1859. I returned to her in the fall of 1865, after a four years' campaign in the Confederate army, and desired to resume my duties as husband and father of one child. She positively refused to reunite. I came to this State and was united to Miss Lucy M. Miller, of Marion county, who abandoned me shortly after the union in consequence of the existing first wife. I am now and have ever been perfectly willing to live with either. What more can I say or propose to do?

C. HAGAN, M. D., and not Tolbert.

—Colonel B. B. G. Twyman, Consul to Mexico under Buchanan, and formerly editor of several newspapers in Kentucky, committed suicide at the St. Charles Hotel, Cairo, on Friday morning, by taking a solution of arsenic. He had been, for some weeks, quite depressed from pecuniary embarrassments, and, on several occasions, had hinted his desire to die. "What is the use for a man to live," said he, "when all undertakings crumble at his touch, and is burdensome to friends?" The night before he removed from the Continental to the St. Charles Hotel, retiring early, and was not missed until Friday afternoon, when he was found to have been dead some hours. A touching and eloquent letter to George D. Prentice, of the Louisville Journal dated several days ago, was on a table. In it he declares his intention, and its causes. His wife, and five grown sons and daughters, reside at Paducah and in the neighborhood, and move in the highest circles. Ten years ago he was worth fifty thousand dollars but since that period every business he has attempted "crumbled at his touch," and he died poor."

—At the dinner table of a Trenton hotel, recently, sat a member of the New Jersey Legislature from one of the back towns, who had perhaps never taken dinner at a hotel before in his life. Before him was a dish of peppers, and he kept looking at them. Finally, as the waiters were slow about bringing up the things, he took up his fork and soused one into his mouth. As he brought down his grinders upon it, the tears came into his eyes. At last, spitting the pepper into his hand, he laid it down by the side of his plate, and with a voice that set the whole table in a roar exclaimed, "Just lie there and cool!"

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY, December 9, 1867.

Gold opened dull at 136⅜, declined to 136⅜, advanced to 136⅞ to 137, and closed strong at that bid. There is still a large short interest uncovered, so the bears made a strong effort to bring down the premium to cover and then turn bulls. It was quite surprising to the regular operators in gold to see it go down in the face of a decline of bonds in Europe, and rumors of new complications arising out of the Italian question. It is the general belief that gold must advance before many days, but considering the heavy disbursements by the Government on January first, the question may fairly be asked, who is to buy the gold and hold it for contingencies. Among all the theories advanced for a rise but one has any foundation, that is the beginning of specie shipments for want of confidence in the ability of the first-class houses to meet their maturing obligations. Therefore, a rise in the premium is more likely in February than now, when the Treasury will be at low ebb and imports commence to increase.

Bonds were very dull early in the day, but when the noon board adjourned there was a brisk demand for bonds, and an advance took place for all the Five Twenties of 1862, 1865 and 1867; the balance of the list is neglected.

Stocks are strong, and under a report that more greenbacks would be issued advanced: New York Central 2¼, Fort Wayne ⅝, Erie ½, Cleveland & Pittsburgh ⅜. Quicksilver advanced from 15⅛ to 21⅛, and Merchants Union Express from 44¼ to 49.

The Mining shares are dull, but all that is offered on the market is readily taken, with the beginning spring an excitement is likely to spring up that will exceed even the petroleum times. Immense fortunes were lost in speculations which cannot be regained in the ordinary business pursuits, so crowds will seek their fortunes in the lottery of the mining regions.

Closing New York quotations, received by Ph. R. Mertz, were as follows:

Gold, 137; 1881's, 112¼; 5-20s, 1862, 107¾; 1864, 104⅝; 1865, 105¼; Consols, 107¾; 10-40s, 101¼; 7-30s, 104⅝.

—The Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway Company have declared the usual quarterly dividend of 2½ per cent., free of government tax, on their stock of $11,500,000, payable on the 16th of January, and they anticipate, at the same time, the first of April 3½ per cent on the $2,000,000 of their their third mortgage bonds. The earnings and finances of the road are in a highly satisfactory condition, authorizing the present early announcement of the quarterly dividend earned since the first of October.

—The Convention of Express Companies which has been in session in New York for several days and the holding of which gave rise to the rumor of a consolidation of the Merchants' Union and the several old Express Companies, has made mutual and amicable arrangements for the interchange of freight and packages, as common carriers. This puts an end to the Express war which has been raging ever since the Merchants' Union commenced business, and places that institution in the front rank of Express Companies in this country. Economy and good management, with a persistent desire on the part of stockholders to "back" the new concern, have brought about this result which cannot but prove a great benefit to the mercantile community throughout the States. The rumors in regard to a consolidation of the companies are entirely without foundation.

—The Chicago Tribune of Saturday, says: Our paper of this morning contains a very interesting table showing the National Banking capital of the six principal cities. Boston $42,500,000; New York, $73,809,700; Philadelphia $9,817,150; Cincinnati, $4,000,000; Chicago, $5,200,000; St. Louis, $6,700,000. Comparing the business of Chicago with any of the other cities, her banking capital seems very small and such is incontrovertibly the fact. The business of Philadelphia will not compare with that of this city, yet her banking capital is over three times as large. There is only one solution of the question "how does Chicago handle the grain, pork and lumber crops of the Northwest, in addition to taking care of her mercantile and manufacturing interests?" Most of the banks get re-discounts in New York and Boston, though such is never mentioned in the quarterly reports. We want more banking capital here. The business of our city is far outstripping the growth of our banking capital, and there is plenty of room for several of the millions that are seeking investment from day to day among the stock and gold gamblers of Wall street.

—Gold is higher, and will not fall so long as such resolutions as the following are offered in Congress:

On motion of Mr. Ingersoll, (Rep., Ill.,) the Committee on Ways and Means was instructed to inquire into the expediency of restoring the currency to an amount equal to the amount retired since the act of April 12, 1866.

The currency in existence April 1, 1866, compared with that in circulation Nov. 1, 1867, is as follows:

	April 1, 1866.	Nov. 1, 1867
Compound Notes	$172,012,141	$62,558,94[illegible]
U. S. Notes	421,749,[illegible]51	357,161,844
Fractional	28,008,452	30,786,633
Total	$622,766,845	$45[illegible],[illegible]2[illegible],417
Proposed increase	$172,[illegible]40,[illegible]8[illegible].

All propositions to remedy existing financial evils by issuing more currency, or by "suspending contraction," must fail. Mr. Ingersoll's proposition, at one stroke, would undo all the labor of the past in retiring the irredeemable trash dignified by the term legal tender, tolerated under pressure of the necessities of the nation. The financial condition of the country is such that it cannot be relived by the issue of pictures exchangeable for other engravings, irredeemable, though called and used as money. What the country needs is less currency, and more exchangeable products. The ranks of labor require to be recruited largely from the speculators and non-producers that now throng the towns and cities. The cost of the war left the nation mortgaged for $2,500,000,000, and it can be lifted only by savings from earnings. Beside the mortgage, the possession of a barren country cost the people hundreds of thousands of its best laborers, and the destruction in war of horses, cattle, and crops, which, consumed in the pursuits of peace, would have made the country richer. As compared with 1860, the labor of the country is now burdened with an additional tax of $300,000,000 per annum, a sum which simply pays the interest on the cost of the war, and does not reduce the principal one dollar. What is wanted is more of the products of the soil and a demand for the labor of the country, including that of the present non-producers. There is no demand for more currency, except from speculators and traders upon borrowed money, and the sooner Congress dismisses the matter the better.—N. Y. Tribune.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY, December 9, 1867.

CRUDE—The market for crude presented no new characteristics worthy of special notice. That there is a firmer feeling than there was last week, is generally conceded, but prices are no higher than on Saturday—the only sale reported was one thousand barrels at 8¼c, delivered in bulk cars at Oil City. Here and to arrive, there are buyers at 7c, in bulk cars, but holders are endeavoring to obtain 7½c. There were no further developments in regard to the "corner," of which there was considerable gossip on Saturday, and it would seem that for the present at least, the movement has subsided. Telegrams from Oil City report the market dull at two dollars—that means, we presume, on spot, as the sale above noted at 8¼c would be equal to $2,20, delivered in bulk cars.

REFINED—The market for bonded oil is firmer, though devoid of life or animation, and prices, compared with Saturday, have undergone but little change. We can report sales of 1000 and 500 bbls, for all December, at 25c; and 500 on spot, at 24c. This last sale of spot oil shows a slight improvement, 24c, against 23¾c last week; but, as will be seen, December is unchanged at 25c. The shipments continue exceedingly light, and the stock of oil in this market, both crude and refined, is extremely small, and it would be a good thing for the trade if the same could be said, truthfully, in regard to Philadelphia and New York.

ARRIVALS—The arrivals of oil by the Allegheny Valley Railroad to-day were as follows: 560 for Fisher & Bro.; 5?8 for Lockhart & Frew, and 420 for Wormser, Myers & Co—total, 1556 bbls.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY, December 9, 1867.

The general markets present no new characteristics worthy of special notice. There is a steady local demand for most of the leading articles, but with good stocks and liberal arrivals, prices, as a general thing, are not quotably higher. The weather is very cold, but dry, and all that could be desired for the transaction of out-door business.

GRAIN—Spring Wheat is very dull; prime Winter Wheat is in steady demand at $2,45@2,50 for Red, and $2,55@2,60 for White. Oats firmer but unchanged; sale of 1 car load in first hands at 68c—small sales in store at 70@72c. Barley is not so much excited and lower; $1,60@1,65 for Spring. Corn is firmer and new has advanced to $1,05@1,08; old is still quoted at $1,18@1,20. Rye is firmer and higher, and may now be quoted at $1,50@1,55.

FLOUR—There is a steady local demand, and while the market is firm, prices are unchanged. We quote at $10,00@10,50 for Spring Wheat; $12@12,50 for Winter Wheat, and $14@15 for fancy brands. Rye Flour, $8,50, and Buckwheat, $5@5,50 per cwt.

POTATOES—Dull and unchanged; small sales of Peach Blows in store at 95c@1,00 per bushel. New Jersey Sweets are still quoted at $6 per bbl.

APPLES—In steady demand but unchanged at $2,50@3, for inferior to good, and $3,50@4 for prime choice.

DRIED FRUIT—Is quiet and unchanged; small sales in store at 7 to 8c for Apples, and 11@13c for Peaches.

BUTTER—There is a steady demand for prime to choice Roll Butter, and and we can report regular sales at 38@40c. Print, 50c.

EGGS—Scarce and firm at 32@33c.

CHEESE—Sales of Hamburg at 15@16c; Factory at 16@17c, and Goshen at 17½@18c.

APPLE BUTTER—Sales at 75@80c.

BEANS—Dull at $3¼@3¼.

HOMINY—Quoted at $7@7¼.

HAY—$18@23, as to quality.

ALLEGHENY CATTLE MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY, December 9, 1867.

CATTLE.

Notwithstanding there was a pretty full supply of Cattle on sale to-day, the market was quite active, and with an improved demand, the great proportion of the offerings were disposed of, and that, too, at slightly improved prices. For strictly prime fat cattle, of which the supply was light, there was an active demand at a slight advance, and this class of stock sold at from 7¼ to 7¾, and medium butchers cattle brought 6¼ to 7. The improved demand may be attributed in part to the change in the weather, the butchers, as a general thing, always take hold with more freedom when the weather is cold, and, besides, there is an apparent falling off in the arrivals of dressed meat from the country. For common Cattle there was also a better demand and a slight improvement in prices, but there was less activity than in good cattle, though this was to be expected. Upon the whole, the market turned out much better than the majority of the drovers expected it would at the opening, as many of them expected a repetition of the markets that have prevailed for some weeks past. The following is a pretty full report of the sales:

Crawford & Cameron wholesaled to Haas & Kraus 35 head of medium Ohio cows, heifers and steers—32 sold at 5¼, and 3 at 4¾.

Adam Snyder sold 19 head of commonish Butler county stock at 3¾@4¼. Rothchilds & Byers sold 34 head of fair to good cattle at 5 to 7¼.

Chas. Shomaker wholesaled 20 head of fairish Belmont Co Ohio steers, averaging 1025, to Rothchilds & Byers, at 5,80.

Greenwald & Kann report having retailed 89 head of Ohio cattle at 5¼ to 7¾.

Peter Hartman sold 42 head of Washington and Green Co. cattle at 4 to 7¼. Kraus & Haas report having retailed 69 Ohio cattle at 5 to 6¾.

L. Rothchilds wholesaled 15 head of prime cattle to Simon Moses at 7; retailed 12 head at 6 to 7¼.

Jas. McAllister sold for Paxton 37 head of Washington county steers and cows at 6 to 6¼, and 11 head of Green county stock, for another party at 4¼.

Hazlewood & Blackstock sold 27 head of prime cattle to Klemen at 7—$80 over; 18 head for Holmes & Pfieffer at 4@7, and 8 "scalawags" at 3¼ to 4.

Marks & Trauman sold 81 head of Ohio cattle at 6¼ to 7¾; this firm bought 17 good butchers cattle at 6¾.

Hedges & Taylor retailed 20 head scalawags for Magruder at 4¼ to 5¼. Smith & Talmage sold 26 common cows and heifers for C. French at 4¼ to 5¼.

L. Shamberg sold 44 head for Randolph at 5¾ to 6¾, and 40 head for Sellers at 5¼ to 5¾.

Nicholas Carr sold 19 head of Licking county, Ohio, cattle for Morgan at 5¼ to 7¼, and 6 head Washington county (Penna.) cattle for Paxton at 5¼ to 6¼.

Glass, Lafferty & Co. sold on commission, about 50 head at 3 to 5¼.

Eddy wholesaled 29 head of good cattle to Hazlewood & Blackstock at 7; the latter subsequently sold the same bunch of at a profit of four dollars per head to Peter Klemen.

Stakely & Bro. report having sold 6 bulls at 3¼, and two steers at $77 for the two.

There were other sales, the particulars of which we did not get, including those of M. Verner and Myers & Needy.

SHEEP AND LAMBS.

There was an unusually light supply of Sheep and Lambs this week, and while the market was considerably firmer, we have no high prices to report for the simple reason that there were no good fat Sheep, on sale. Prime to extra retailing Sheep had there have been any of this grade on sale, would have brought $4 to $4½ per head. As already stated, there were no good fat Sheep in market, and the supply of all kinds was limited. We quote the following sales:

Adam Eckert reports having sold 155 Sheep and Lambs at $1 to $2¼ per head—sold one lot of 120 head at $2,10.

Adam Snyder sold 130 head of Butler county calawags to Adam Bowers at $1 per head—$2 over.

John McAllister sold on commission, for Wallis, 70 head of Sheep and Lambs at $1,90 to $2,30 per head.

Jas. Shaw reports having sold 200 head at from 80c to $2 per head—must have been common.

H. McKee reports having sold 83 head of Butler county Sheep at $1 25 to $2 per head.

HOGS.

The market for this class of stock has been more active since the date of our last report and prices are from ¾ to 1c per pound better The advance may be attributed to the improvement in the eastern markets, as well as to the change in the weather, which has caused both packers and butchers to take hold with more freedom—the weather could not possibly be better for packing, cold and dry. We now quote in a retail way at 6¼ to 8c, gross.

RIVER NEWS.

The river was again falling at this point last evening, with about four feet nine inches in the channel by the Monongahela pier marks. The Allegheny River was full of heavy floating ice, and ice was beginning to form in the Monongahela last evening. The former stream was entirely closed at Oil City; it was rumored that there is an additional rise of three feet coming out of the Monongahela, but the rumor was not well authenticated. The weather continues cold, and notwithstanding the wind had much subsided, we expect to see the ice much heavier to-day.

The Leni Leoti arrived from Parkersburg on Saturday, and is now on the dock undergoing repairs. It is thought that she will be off this evening. The Grey Eagle was to have left for night—her first trip this season.

The Argosy, Armadillo, Selma and Mary Davage and barges are loading for New Orleans. The Kate Robinson has a sign out for Cincinnati and Louisville, and the Armenia and Lorena are up for St. Louis.

We noticed some of the smaller coal-tugs moving around yesterday, picking up light tows of coal, we presume, for Cincinnati and Louisville.

If the weather should moderate to-day and the ice is not too heavy, the Julia No. 2 will probably take her departure for Zanesville today or to-morrow.

The following towboats were reported as having left yesterday for below with coal: Antelope, 5 flats; Sam Roberts, 5 boats; Fearless, 5 boats; Leader, 10 flats; J. Gilmore, 6 barges. J. Burns sent out four flats floating, and Grey, Farrow and Gumbert sent out two. There may have been others, but the above were all we had reported.

We take the following items from the Cincinnati Enquirer of Saturday: The veteran Captain Adam Poe has bought the interest of Captain Thomas Golding in the steamer America, and it is understood that, after his long retirement from the river, he will again enter the service and will take command of the America. He telegraphed here from Pittsburg yesterday to have the America dropped down to the wharf, and he will be here to-day. It is not known where she will go.

INSURANCE CASE.—A case of some interest was in progress in the Supreme Court yesterday, the parties being John W. Trover vs. the Lafayette Insurance Company, of this city. Trover claims to have held a mortgage on the steamer Ella, sunk in 1865, in the Arkansas river, twenty miles below Little Rock. The Insurance Company had issued a policy for $2,600, and Trover claims an interest of $9,000 in the boat. No written mortgage is in existence. The parties neglected to make the mortgage, but both the owner of the boat and Trover made affidavit to the fact that the boat was understood to be controlled by Trover, and was held by him as security for the debt. The Insurance Company contest the suit on the grounds that Trover had no mortgage interest in the boat.

POMEROY, December 6.—The river is rising slowly, with four feet hence to Cincinnati. The towboat Bebe arrived last evening, from Cincinnati, with a tow of empty barges; also, the towboat H. Clay Wilson. The steamer Le Claire arrived last evening from above, bound for Cincinnati. The steamer Success left for Parkersburg this morning. No boats passed down to-day. The steamer Mattie Roberts, in command of Captain Charlie Grant, leaves for Cincinnati to-night, with a full load. The Kate Putnam has left her landing here, and dropped down to Clifton, Virginia, and is unloading her iron ore, and will depart for Pittsburgh to-night.

A St. Louis telegram to the Cincinnati Enquirer, under date of Friday, says: Mr. Merry, the gentleman who is taking four barges of wheat down to New Orleans, to be shipped thence direct to Liverpool, succeeded in getting insurance on his other two barges of miscellaneous freight to-day, notwithstanding the resolution recently passed by the Board of Underwriters of this city, declaring that they would not insure freight in barges where more than three barges were towed by one boat.

Murphy, charged with burning the Champion, at Memphis, in 1864, was before United States Commissioner Morrison, in Memphis, on the 3d, and discharged, it being decided that the United States Court had no jurisdiction in the case. The principal witness for the Government was one Tadforth, of St. Louis.

SIGHT RESTORED.

The case to which we alluded some weeks ago, of Christiana Fisher, of Beaver county, is now entirely confirmed by the appearance of Miss Fisher herself, who to-day called on DR. KEYSER in person, to thank him for his kindness and skill in restoring her to ENTIRE AND PERFECT SIGHT. Miss Fisher had been nearly blind for four months. She was so blind that she could not distinguish any object so as to make out what it was. The case is remarkable, as hundreds of cases like her's are doomed to never-ending darkness, on the flimsy pretext that there is no cure, and nothing can be done. She was under DR. KEYSER'S treatment for two months, and before she applied to him, through her brother, SIMON P. FISHER, slight hopes were entertained of her ever getting her sight. Her case is well known in the neighborhood where she resides, and has been regarded as one of extraordinary recovery.

We, the undersigned, know of the cure of Miss Fisher and bear willing testimony to the facts above stated.

The case above referred to was entirely cured by medicines to purify the blood, and it is witnessed by scores of persons who have known Miss Fisher, and have a knowledge of her total restoration to health, and the recovery of her sight, as the accompanying letter of her brother sets forth:

DR. KEYSER—This is the list of names that have to your advertisement of the cure of my sister, Christiana Fisher. They were all willing to put their names down, and were very much astonished to see that you brought her sight so soon. My mother sends her thanks to you: she says "you are one of the greatest men in the world." She says if we had not come across you she believes her child would not be living at this time. We all join in sending our love and respects to you.

CONSUMPTION.

It would take a man a lifetime to read the treatises that have been written upon this important subject, and if a sick man were to attempt he would make himself worse by the reading, and die before he got half through. The symptoms of the disease are, hacking cough, expectoration of matter or pus, pain in one of both lungs, chilliness, burning in the palms of the hands and soles of the feet, exhausting day or night sweats, hectic fever, wasting of flesh or marasmus, sometimes expectoration of blood. These are the usual outward symptoms, apparent not only to the observing physician, but to the patient's friends. There are, however, more important symptoms than these, which are only made manifest by auscultation and percussion, terms which mean, in a medical sense, thumping and listening, and they are employed outwardly in order to ascertain what is going on inside of the cavity of the chest. The signs or symptoms elicited in this way are almost sure to demonstrate the true and exact condition of the respiratory organs. A perfect auscultator cannot fail in ascertaining whether the Lungs are acting naturally or not. Hence it is the best method of examining the lungs. Their actual condition once discovered, the appropriate treatment is more rapidly arrived at, and every diseased part more completely under the influence of appropriate remedies. We have long been of the opinion that consumption or decay, or wasting of the bodily strength, was dependent on a depraved state of the blood, which carries, in its course, tuberculous matter, and deposits it in the lungs, or elsewhere in the body, just as calcull or stone is deposited in the bladder, a small particle of which attracts other particles, until it becomes of such offense to the natural functions as to bring on inflammatory action, which action, if it could, would carry it out of the system, and which could have been easily done in the beginning of such disease. DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP is a complete and perfect cure in the forming stage of lung disease. It acts on the very principle we have stated above, by enabling the secreting or carrying off organs to do a double share of work. Waste and repair are easily comprehended, and if the worn out material be carried off, and the renewing material of a proper character, there must be health and ease, the contrary of sickness and disease. In many cases of consumption which have become settled, Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup fails to cure, although it will do good in nearly all. He prepares a medicine called LUNG CURE or PULMONARY RESTORATIVE, which is a great tonic, and strengthens and restores the parts to be renewed, while it dissolves and carries out from the body those particles of worn out or extraneous matter which only tend to clog or destroy it, by hindering the renewing material being deposited in its proper place.

PULMONARY CONSUMPTION, RESULTING FROM PLEURISY, CURED.

Statement of George Ford, carpenter, of No. 18 Sampson street, Allegheny City:

I took a violent attack of pleurisy, in May, 1866, which left me with a cough lasting all summer, wearing away my strength and gradually undermining my health. During this attack of pleurisy I had several physicians of the highest reputation in the city. After I had partially recovered from the pleurisy, I was advised to go into the country, which I did, and when there a called in a doctor, who told me my left lung was affected, and that if something were not done soon I would die of CONSUMPTION. I lingered on from this time until about the middle of June, my cough and lung disease gradually growing worse, and I weaker every day, and almost despairing of ever getting well. In this state of despondency, and knowing the general belief of the incurability of Consumption, and having heard of cures made by DR. KEYSER, and seeing his advertisement in the newspapers, I was induced in October last to call on the Doctor at his office, 120 Penn street, and had him examine my lungs with his "LUNG SOUND." He told me the upper one of my left lung was very much diseased, but he thought with great care and the perseverance in the use of his medicine, I would get well. At the time I called on Dr. Keyser my pulse was over one hundred and thirty beats in a minute, and I was generally prostrated, and had to cough night and day. I commenced the Doctor's treatment in October, with a feeble, broken constitution, and continued it faithfully until the present time. The Doctor's medicines helped me from the very start, and I could gradually feel myself getting stronger, and my cough and expectoration lessening. I have gained greatly in flesh, and consider myself well: all the rattling of my lung has ceased, and my general health is in every way good. All my relatives and friends know of the advanced stage of my disease and my extraordinary recovery. One of the medicines given me by Dr. Keyser was a medicine called LUNG CURE, which I took in connection with the other treatment.
GEORGE FORD.
PITTSBURGH, March 30, 1867.

ANOTHER CURE OF CONSUMPTION.

STATEMENT OF JOHN G. WIGHAM, OF TURTLE CREEK, ALLEGHENY COUNTY.

I was discharged from the United States army in January, 1865, on account of a wound in the head, from a shell, and a disease which the army physicians pronounced CONSUMPTION. I had a terrible cough and fell away in strength and flesh and was unable to do anything. Shortly after my return from the army, I made application to a physician of my neighborhood and, afterwards, to another in Pittsburgh of high reputation, whose remedies I used faithfully for five months, without any benefit whatever, but rather grew worse, and wasted in flesh and strength every day. In August, 1866, my mother took me to DOCTOR KEYSER, of 120 Penn street, whose skill in such cases like mine had been highly spoken of and put myself under his treatment. The Doctor examined my lungs very carefully with his LUNG SOUND, and told me that my left lung was badly diseased at the upper part, but if I was careful he thought he could cure me by following his directions closely, which I did from that day to this. I gradually improved under Dr. Keyser's medicines from the first week I commenced to take them, and my general health has improved and my chest, where it was sunken away, and where it pained me, has become full and strong and free from pain. I can now do a full day's work, and take great pleasure in giving my testimony in favor of Dr. Keyser's treatment and medicines.
JOHN G. WIGHAM, Turtle Creek.
PITTSBURGH, April 11th, 1867.

A case of five years' standing cured by DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP:

DR. KEYSER—My wife has been afflicted with a cough and difficulty of breathing for five or six years, which, for several years back, had gradually increased in violence. The complaint has been hereditary, and she had been treated by several physicians without any relief. In this state of her case I procured some of your PECTORAL COUGH SYRUP. I bought the first time a fifty cent bottle, which relieved her very much; I then called and got a dollar bottle, which cured her entirely, and she has now no trace of the former disease, except weakness. I would also state that I used the medicine myself for a cold and cough. The medicine cured me by taking one dose. I express my entire satisfaction with the medicine, and you are at liberty to publish this if you desire to do so.
WM. WILSON,
Alderman Fifth Ward.

Our son, JAMES PAINTER, some 23 years of age was afflicted with consumption of the lungs, for which he was discharged from the army. He was examined by four army physicians, who all agreed that he must die with the disease. We brought him to Dr. KEYSER, 140 Wood street, (now 120 Penn street,) who, after sounding his lungs, commenced to treat him, and cured him sound and well. He is now well and has been so for the past three years. Others afflicted in like manner can likewise be cured.
